PETITIONS BEING SIGNED FOR FOURTH

County Court and City Council Being Urged to Get Busy on Reception

The finance committee of the Fourth of July Soldier and Sailor reception is busy with petitions today. One paper asks the county to appropriate the $2,000 asked of the county and another asks the city council to appropriate $1,000.

Every effort is being brought to bear upon the court and council to convince them that this is a public function and should be paid for from public funds. It is for the entire county and no one set of men should be asked to pay the bills, think those in charge, and no one has yet been found, either in or out of Albany, who does not agree.

The committee wants to give the people of Linn county the greatest demonstration ever seen here. They want to give the boys in the service a fitting welcome home and to express in a fitting manner the appreciation of the people of Linn county for their splendid and gallant service.

They do not want to do it half-way. "Right or not at all," is the way Franz Pfeiffer, P. D. Gilbert and F. M. French talk, and if given the money they ask for they will stage the greatest celebration ever held in the valley.

Drove to Portland—Lee Anderson and Edmund Tracey drove to Portland this morning in the Anderson car on business. On Business—Carter Stringer of Portland, a former Linn county boy, transacted local business at the courthouse today.

PLOT OF COUNTER REVOLUTION FOUND IN BUDAPEST AND LEADERS ARRESTED

Many Alleged Conspirators Including Leader Are Arrested and Ammunition and Stores Are Seized

PLANS WELL-LAID

Conspirators Planned to form White Guard, Occupy Budapest and Arrest Officials; Leaders Former Police

By Edward Bing BUDAPEST, May 21.—A counter revolution has been revealed here against the Bela Kun communist government. A number of alleged conspirators including their leader have been arrested and large stores of ammunition seized.

It is reported the conspirators intended to organize a White Guard, occupy Budapest, destroy the Red Guard and arrest Bela Kun and the other members of the soviet outfit.

The leaders of the exposed plot are mostly former police officials. One merchant and several wealthy landowners—whose property had been confiscated by the soviet state—were arrested for complicity. Bela Kun's soviet regime is apparently firmly ensaddled.

JERSEY BREEDERS COMING THURSDAY

Albany to Be Host to Important Gathering of Jersey Cattle Breeders

The Oregon Jersey Cattle club opened its big jubilee in honor of Vive La France, the world's champion Jersey cow, owned by Pickard Brothers of Marion, in Portland yesterday. Jersey breeders are present from all over the state and from other parts of the northwest.

Today the members and visitors start out in autos for a tour of the Willamette Valley, stopping at the leading Jersey breeders' places along the way. They start up the west side of the river, spending the night at Salem where they will be entertained extensively.

Tomorrow the party again takes to the west side, visiting farms along the way and taking noon lunch at O. A. C. at Corvallis. In the afternoon the Robert L. Burkhardt and Henry Stewart farms will be visited and the night will be spent in Albany.

An effort has been made by some to pay homage to this important gathering and it is possible that something will be done here. A large banner will welcome the breeders to the city; but some more substantial form of entertainment is desired. Friday morning the Dickson farm at Sheild will be visited. About 11 o'clock the party will again stop at the Burkhardt farm, where Mr. Burkhardt will treat the guests to ice cream, cake and punch.

The big event of the trip takes place at noon at the Pickard farm near Marion, the home of Vive La France. This valuable cow will be present to greet the visitors in person. Marion county has appropriated $2,000 for the celebration at the Pickard farm. Many will attend from this city.

WHAT THE ROAD BOND BILL MEANS TO LINN COUNTY

Much Depends Upon Passage of the Bill for Linn County's Future Greatness

Road Bond Talk No. 1 Do you realize what it means if the $600,000 road bond issue fails to pass the special election on June 3? Do you want to pay state taxes for nothing? Don't you want to get back some of the money that this county pays for state roads?

Linn county pays one-third of all the taxes of the state, of Oregon. For the last ten years or so Linn county has been paying the one-fourth mill road tax, and not until this year has one cent ever been spent on the county roads.

Linn county has been paying auto license taxes, but very little of this money is left in the county at present. Linn county motorists are paying a state tax on gasoline. But at present there is little chance of any of that money coming back to Linn county roads.

There is no question but that the one-mill market roads bill will pass. Towards which Linn county will pay about $30,000 annually, but to get any of that money back the county court must match it dollar for dollar.

The money provided for highway construction under the $10,000,000 state road bill will not come to Linn county unless the county court has money to pay for grading, bridges, etc., preparatory to the state's doing the paving.

If the $600,000 bond bill fails to pass it means that the Pacific Highway will stop right at Albany because the court has not the money and cannot get enough to finish the grading to Harrisburg.

It means that Linn county will get none of the federal post roads or forest reserve money, both of which are sure to come if Linn county does her part.

It means that without the money provided by the bill none of the market roads money will be available because the county court will be unable to match it.

It means that Linn county will be thrown behind at least two years on her road program and that but little work will be done on the roads until more money is provided for road work.

The amount to be raised, $600,000, is small, but it will help a lot. It will grade all of the roads mentioned in the special election notice, put down a good roadbed and put them in shape for the hardsurfacing that is bound to come within a very short time. It will hardsurface about ten miles on three roads and will provide for the completion of the paving of the Pacific Highway from Albany to Harrisburg.

And with this amount to work with the county will benefit from the various state and government moneys mentioned above, which will amount to more than the face of the bonds.

Women at International Congress Unanimously Declare War on Wars in Future; Austrian Takes Lead

HELP IS SOUGHT

To Send Delegates to Socialist Convention to Ask All Members to Refuse Military Service in Case of War

By Rudolph Kommer ZURICH, May 21.—The Eighteenth International Woman's Congress today voted unanimously to call a worldwide strike of women in the event another war is declared.

Fraulein Hertzka, delegate from Vienna, made the proposal. It was carried after an amendment had been added providing for the strike to be called even if war was sanctioned by the man-governed League of Nations.

The conference resolved to send a delegation to the meeting of the international socialist executive committee at Lucerne in August to ask that all socialists refuse military service in the event of a new war. A delegation was also selected to submit these resolutions to the peace conference.

CORVALLIS PASTOR DROWNS IN RIVER

Rev. J. Cronnenberger Goes Swimming and Fails to Return; Clothes Found

The body of Rev. J. Cronnenberger, pastor of the Christian church at Corvallis, who was drowned at Corvallis yesterday, had not been recovered up to 3 o'clock this afternoon. A large number of men and boys are diligently searching the bed of the river for their fellow-townsmen, but with no success.

Rev. Mr. Cronnenberger had been going bathing in the Willamette river about a mile north of Corvallis. His friends and family remonstrated with him, but he is said to have laughed at the idea. But yesterday he went away at 11 o'clock without saying anything about it.

When he failed to appear for luncheon his family became worried and at 1 o'clock a search was made. Sidney Trask went to the place where he was in the habit of bathing and there found Mr. Cronnenberger's automobile and his clothes. The Corvallis fire department was called and has been on the job with grappling hooks since.

He was about 45 years old and survived by his wife and one daughter in Corvallis and two sons, one in Texas and the other in the army. He had many friends in this city.

BOOSTERS FOR ROSE FESTIVAL VISITORS

Lieut. French with Party Locomotive Airplane Landing Places Through State

Colonel Lewis P. Campbell and John P. Risley, special representatives of the Victory Rose Festival, which will be held in Portland June 11, 12 and 13, and Lieut. Seth T. French of this city and Lieut. L. R. Mullineaux, of the U. S. air service, representing the Aero club of Oregon, arrived in the city last evening and left for the south this morning.

Col. Campbell and the entire party is boosting for the big Victory parade which will be held in Portland the first day of the festival. Every city in the state is invited to send a float to Portland, bearing the war record of each community. A large number of cities will be represented with prettily decorated floats telling what part their people played in winning the war—enlisted men, casualties, Red Cross and other war work. An effort is being made to see that Albany is well represented.

In view of the fact that Albany will be the scene of a big celebration and reception to the soldiers on July 4th it is felt that this city cannot afford not to be represented. Lieut. French and Lieut. Mullineaux are also boosting the Rose Festival but their main object on the trip is to locate landing fields throughout the state. The flying circus which will take part in the Rose Festival activities will make the trip from Mather field, California, by air, and it is the object of the men on this trip to locate landing fields in each town and send a chart to the commander of Mather Field so that should any flier have to descend for any reason he will know what he is going into. Landing spots will be located every 25 miles along the way, with the customary 'T' pointing the wind direction.

Survey to Be Permanent

However, the survey has a more permanent feature. It is expected that in the near future airplanes will be making regular trips from Oregon to California, and landing spots will be needed then as a permanent thing. The party will return in about ten days to make the selection in this city and the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce will be given in the matter.

The Rose Festival this year will eclipse every past performance, say the representatives. It will be bigger and more elaborate in every detail. On the first day the big Victory parade will be held. On the second day a military movement will be staged. Every man in Oregon who served during the war is invited to participate in the parade. Every show and place of amusement in Portland will be open to men in uniform without charge that day. The customary floral parade

PEACE TREATY NOT PLEASING TO EVERY MEMBER OF PEACE COMMISSION OF U. S.

Resignation of Nine Members Said to Reveal Disapproval of Majority of Delegates Over Provisions of Treaty

WILSON'S TASK HARD

President's Critics Are Reminded that League of Nations Object Was Difficult—Concessions Imperative

By Lloyd Mellett; Copyright 1919 By United Press PARIS, May 21.—Action of the nine members of the American peace commission in resigning as an expression of their disapproval of the peace treaty offered Germany brought to light the fact that their sentiments are shared by a great portion of the commission. Inquiries by the United Press have not revealed any member of the commission who gives his unqualified approval to the work of the 'Big Four'—the peace treaty.

The nearest approach to approval I have found is the expression of some who say the treaty is assuredly bad but the League of Nations redeems its faults. Mingled with detailed objections to the whole treaty are strong condemnations of President Wilson for giving his assent to it, though, on the other hand, many defend his sincerity, saying that the creation of the League of Nations was bigger and more idealistic than those outside the conference appreciate and that he was compelled to sacrifice one purpose after another in order to accomplish this one aim.

They say the Shantung victory of the Nipponese is bad, the Italian conquests in Dalmatia are bad, the seizure of the Saar Valley in Germany by the French is rotten, and so on, but that if the League works as per its blue prints, these things will straighten themselves out in the next generation or two without quite precipitating another war to accomplish it.

COOS COUNTY MAN IS ALBANY VISITOR

C. H. Jackson, deputy assessor of Coos county and a delegate to the O. O. F. convention at Salem, was an overnight visitor in the city last night. Mr. Jackson is a son of a pioneer sea captain who ran away from his home in Boston when a boy about ten years of age. In a heavy storm off the coast of Coos Bay in the year 1854 his ship was stranded and his father was saved from the wreckage of the ship and spent the remaining days of his life in Coos county. Mr. Jackson's sister has the distinction of being the first girl born in Coos county.

PROMINENT PEOPLE VISIT IN ALBANY

Shaw. Mr. Merritt is one of the Merritt Brothers who discovered the great iron mines northwest of Duluth, which they subsequently sold to Rockefeller.

for which Portland has become nationally famous, will be held on the last day.

Pacific Fleet Coming Among the big features will be the flying circus of many airplanes and the seaplane, like those now making the transatlantic flight, from the cruiser Minneapolis, which holds the navy flying championship. The Pacific fleet of ten cruisers and the customary accompaniment of destroyers, torpedo-boats, submarines, etc., will also be in the harbor.
