

Cooperation--The Secret of Success

Many a successful farmer and business man will tell you that his banking connection has been an important factor in his success. No bank can render a broader service than its facilities will permit.

Gates News

GATES, May 30.—Special.—Mrs. Lucy Davis went to Portland Monday. Mrs. Mable Hensman went to Portland Monday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Fred Brockman.

Rev. E. E. Clarke of Mill City filled the pulpit of the church in Gates Sunday at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Christensen of Albany delivered a lecture in the church at Gates Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rider of Mill City came up to attend the Christian science lecture Sunday evening.

The dance and supper given at the I. O. O. F. hall May 17 was a success. Music was furnished by a five-piece orchestra. There were about 300 present. The proceeds were turned in to the building fund, which now amounts to about $160.

Mrs. J. P. McCurdy did her bit towards helping with the new hall by selling ice cream, and turned in about $18 to the building fund.

Mrs. Marietta Smith entertained the Birthday club May 24. Refreshments were served at the noon hour. The afternoon was spent in games. Mrs. Martha Bowen won first and Mrs. A. P. Scott second prize. Those present were Mrs. C. B. Gaines, Mrs. R. McDonald, Mrs. Z. M. Bevier, Mrs. Eva Bavier, Mrs. M. Bowen, Mrs. A. B. Scott, Mrs. M. Schroeder.

Glen Acker was shopping in Niagara Tuesday.

The vaudeville and show given in the Winkly Hall in Gates Monday night was well attended.

The rain the past few days has done good and grain and gardens are looking fine.

Mrs. Maud Davis went to Salem as delegate from Fir Rebekah lodge to attend the Grand Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ransom and daughter Lucy and son Floyd started to motor to Sacramento Valley Tuesday morning, and expect to be gone two months or more.

Scio News Notes

SCIO, May 30.—Special.—Sheriff C. M. Kendall was in town several hours Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Pepper is here from Camas, Wash., on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shelton.

Mrs. R. L. Berry has returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. T. A. Richardson, after an extended visit in Portland and Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cain of Portland are visitors at the Frances Westly home.

Mrs. Ella Crabtree of Forest Grove is here for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Myers are taking a vacation and are visiting relatives in Portland.

Oversea men to return here the past week are Clarence Leffler, Hallie Pepper, Percy Thomas of Jordan, Frank Lambert and M. G. Hutchison, the latter a son-in-law of J. P. Sims. Chas. Balsehewid has also returned from the navy. He made several trips to Europe.

The Scio Hotel has been opened by Mrs. E. J. Smith of Vancouver, Wash.

Ash Swale Items

BROWNVILLE, May 30.—Special.—The Ash Swale school completed its work for the year Friday. Miss Walker of Brownville has been teaching during the past year. A basket dinner was served by the patrons of the district Friday noon, also a picnic for the children. The school board has not yet hired a teacher for the coming year.

A prosperity wave seems to have struck the farmers in the Ash Swale neighborhood. Dave Paine is putting up a large barn; Joe Harrison is building a dairy barn and silo; Henry Bateman is preparing to put up a silo; Jas. DeNolf, Nate Hurson and Fred Harrison are also going to put up new silos.

Mrs. Elmer Haverland and family of five children are down with the 'flu,' although it seems to be in a mild form.

Mrs. Florence Harrison is nursing three 'flu' patients, being employed by Lee Putman's family of Brownville.

Albert Paine expects to leave next week for British Columbia where he goes to look at some land, with a view of locating there.

Take No Chances.

The following interesting bit of information is from Safety Engineering: "Not every one understands how inflammable and explosive chlorate of potash is. One man learned in a peculiar manner. He was carrying chlorate of potash tablets in a small bottle in his coat pocket; the cork presumably became loosened and fell out. Entering a street car, he knocked the ashes from his pipe, as he supposed, and put it in his pocket. In a few moments there were spurts of blue flame, and the tablets went off. For a time the man was in danger of being mistaken for an enemy alien, carrying bombs. The mystery of the explosion was solved by finding small particles of glass wedged in the clothing around where the bottle had been. Other than the shock to his own nerves and those of the passengers, the only damage was to his clothes, which were burned badly."

VIOLA DANA TALKS

AUDIENCE IN NEW PLAY

"Satan Junior," the feature shown today at the Globe Theatre in which Viola Dana plays the leading role, is a romantic comedy of the sort which provides entertainment of variety.

Miss Dana is seen in the piquant character of Diana Arday, an audacious young society girl who derives the nickname 'Satan Junior' from the fact that she seems to be a veritable daughter of the devil, so tantalizing and perverse are her ways, so capricious her moods and yet withal so lovable and alluring. The story shows how the young madcap falls in love with a distinguished playwright who does not take her seriously but believes her profession of love to be an other of the many provoking ways she finds of making his life unbearable. He soon finds, however, that he loves the little vixen and the pretty romance which develops makes the play one of distinction and charm.
