Oakville Items

OAKVILLE, June 20.—Special.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of J. L. Vineyard on Thursday, June 12, when his daughter Ida was united in marriage to Mr. Bruce Hamilton. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton are well known and highly respected and have the best wishes of a host of friends. After a trip to Agate Beach they will reside on their farm in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and son of Canton, China, are guests at the home of Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. J. E. Hamilton. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wright are missionaries to China.

A sad thing occurred in the neighborhood on Monday morning when the home of James Smith and sister, Miss Martha Smith, was completely destroyed by fire. It had been built but a few years. Some of the contents were saved. There was no insurance.

The Red Cross is again meeting for work. Fifty-five skirts have been completed and more are partially finished. All day sessions are held on Tuesday of each week.

On Tuesday evening, June 24, a musicale will be given at the church. Both vocal and instrumental music and readings by Mrs. Lewis of Corvallis will be given. Mrs. Lewis is highly recommended as a reader and the committee is fortunate in securing her. The entertainment is free.

and it is hoped the house will be full. The many friends of Mrs. Margaret Crawford are glad to learn that she is improvign.

ANNUAL RALLY OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The annual rural Sunday School all-day service and rally at Waterloo will be held on Sunday, June 29, under the auspices of the American Sunday school Union.

This is the most notable gathering of its kind occurring in the Willamette Valley. Last year 1200 people were in attendance. Fifteen hundred to two thousand are expected this year.

New people and new features will be on the program this year. The morning chorus singing, with orchestra, with a great children's choir at 10:30 o'clock, will be enjoyable.

There will be an illustrated Bible talk, an address on Christian Education, a special period given to business men under direction of Attorney C. E. Sox of Albany and Dr. W. P. White will give his great illustrated "Story of the Bible." Other special features, together with the big basket dinner, will be crowded into this great program which will close at 4 p. m.

Prepare a dinner basket and attend this greatest Christian gathering of
