SOCIAL & PERSONAL

By Beatrice Sanders

Lovely appointments will predominate at the afternoon dinner to be provided over this evening by Mrs. Rocky E. Mason, in her beautiful summer garden. Mrs. Charles Stewart, who is spending the summer in Albany from Salt Lake City, and Capt. Leroy Wood, recently from France and who will return to France next week, will be the honor guests of the evening. The exquisite table appointments are enhanced by the lovely surroundings of varnished blossoms, shrubbery and vines of the tea garden. A large number of guests will be complimented at this time.

Of paramount interest in next week's social calendar is the lawn fête scheduled for Wednesday afternoon and evening. The spacious and beautiful lawn of the E. D. Cook's home will be the scene of this affair to be given by the Ladies of the First Presbyterian church. Japanese lanterns, parasols and charming booths will make the event gala. A musical program has been arranged and will be a feature. In the early evening a dinner will be served. Every detail has been most charmingly arranged and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Among the most interesting social events for which Mrs. Charles Stewart and Capt. Leroy Wood were honor guests, was the picnic of Monday evening in Bryant Park. The usual diversions filled the evening and a most enjoyable time was passed.

On Tuesday evening another picnicking party was enjoyed in Bryant Park by the same crowd. A delicious supper was a feature of the pleasant evening.

The wedding of Miss Eda Florine Patterson and Herbert Basile of Portland was a charming affair of last week, occurring at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eva Patterson, Portland. Rev. Floyd Davis officiated, under the double ring ceremony. Quantities of field daisies, pink roses and greenery adorned the rooms and made an attractive fall for the bridal party.

The bride wore a dainty gown of sheer white organza and a flowing veil crowned with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid, who was Miss Margaret Gibson of this city, wore a pretty gown of pink organza and little Willetta Burton as flower girl was adorable in white over pink. Lester Patterson acted as best man. Lester's wedding march was played by Melvin Williamson. Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. F. P. Nutting sang "O Promise Me," and following the ceremony Mr. Peters sang "The Garden of the Gods."

A dainty wedding supper was served later, with the Misses Jessie Brown, Alma Beckley and Violet Nutting assisting. About 35 relatives and friends were guests at this time.

Mrs. Basile was formerly an Albany girl with a host of friends here, and has lived in Portland for the past few years. Mr. and Mrs. Basile will make their home in Clatskanie, where Mr. Basile is in business.

The music students of Mrs. Frances Wilson were presented in a recital Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Davis. A splendid program was featured for the afternoon. Profusions of summer blossoms adorned the room in attractive adornment. The mothers of the pupils were guests at the time.

The members of the Monday Bridge club passed a delightful afternoon this week with Mrs. Glen M. Junkin as hostess. Bridge was the afternoon's diversion and this was completed with a dainty lunch. Mr. Albert Rousseau, Mrs. E. P. Anderson and Mrs. Benson were additional guests.

A picnic was the occasion of Tuesday afternoon enjoyed by the Annett club in Bryant Park. Fancywork was a diversion of the afternoon and later supper was served, their husbands being guests at this time.

On Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. Clinton Straney was hostess to the New Nymph club. Roses and sweetpeas in profusion adorned the rooms where the guests passed a social afternoon. At a later hour a lunch was served by the hostess. Election of officers was held and resulted in Mrs. Olin Nebergall being elected president, Mrs. A. B. Wilson vice-president, Mrs. Rollin Hackleman secretary, Mrs. Homer Dowd treasurer. As an additional guest Mrs. Walter Eastburn was present.

The Needlecraft club passed Thursday afternoon picnicking in Bryant Park. After the usual diversions of the afternoon supper was served to the members and their husbands and several complimented guests.

A pleasant afternoon was passed Friday by the S. S. S. club at the home of Mrs. George Thompson. Mrs. M. A. Davis and Mrs. Virgil Louney were complimented guests to enjoy the social time, which was completed with dainty refreshments.

HAMILTON-VINEYARD

A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday evening, June 12, when Miss Ida Vineyard and Mr. Bruce Hamilton, both of Oakville, were united in marriage by Rev. G. G. Wilson of Oakville, assisted by Rev. M. Gilchrist of Agate Beach. Before the ceremony Mrs. Lois Yates Sherer sang "Oh Promise Me." The wedding march was played by Miss Meda Brown, who also gave an instrumental solo. Miss Sylvia Gooch of Mill City sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile." A color scheme of pink and white carried out with roses was used. The bride was attractive in white tulle de-chine, and her bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Vineyard, wore a gown of pink. Mr. Allen Hamilton attended the bridegroom, and Matser Kenneth Hamilton and Miss Margaret Yates acted as chain bearers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for a short honeymoon at the coast, after which they will live on a farm east of Corvallis.

Dancing will be a diversion of tonight at the army, the affair to be given by the Ladies of the Macabee Lodge. Decorations will lend a more gala atmosphere, and good music will be furnished by the Corvallis jazz orchestra.

On Thursday a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dowd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dowd and Mrs. Homer Dowd motored to Brownsville and spent the day at the Pioneer Picnic.

The Royal Neighbors met Wednesday.

Tests That Show What Owners Know

The fine appearance and comfort of the Overland Model 90 could not, alone, have won it the deep public appreciation it enjoys. It is the character of this car that lies beneath all of its popularity—character as demonstrated by consistent, efficient performance.

The pride of more than 150,000 Model 90 owners is built upon the daily service their cars render under all conditions. Let us show you a Model 90.
