Ash Swale News Notes
BROWNSVILLE, June 30.—Special.—The Farmers' Warehouse company has commenced work on their new plant here, and expect to have everything in readiness for operation by Aug. 1 in order to handle the crops this season. Crops are looking fine and it is predicted that the warehouse will have a big run this season, as a number of farmers have already pledged their crops to the company.

The Cascade Contract Co. of the Ash Swale neighborhood is running its plant at full capacity now, and is shipping out from 15 to 18 carloads of crushed rock a day.

The local tie mill is shipping out several carloads of ties a week and has a number of men loading cars. The depot yards present quite a appearance.

J. A. J. Yokum, pioneer of '51 and Indian War veteran, is spending a few days on his farm at Riddle, Douglas county. He expects to return to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Florence Harrison, soon after the Fourth of July.

Clarence Boggie, who has been employed in a tie-mill at Dever, is spending a few days at the home of his father-in-law, D. F. Newland. Mr. Boggie is laid up with a badly injured foot, received while at work at the mill.

Arrives From Camp Lewis—Paul P. Hoffman arrived yesterday from Camp Lewis, where he received his discharge from the 318th engineers. He was in the army of occupation and brought back a number of souvenirs from Germany and also has startling experiences to tell.

Here From Lyons—Mrs. Ralph Trask of Lyons spent Saturday in Albany transacting business and visiting friends.

Rev. Martin Visits—Rev. E. R. Martin, superintendent of the American Sunday School Union of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, was the guest of Dr. White at the St. Francis hotel last night.

Rev. Martin was one of the speakers at Waterloo yesterday.

J. J. Collins Visits—J. J. Collins, deputy revenue officer, left this morning for Salem after spending Sunday in the city with his family.

Business Trip—R. E. L. Brown of Soap Creek, one of the big stockmen of his county, was in the city this morning on a business trip to Portland.

Returned to Anacortes—Mrs. Rindquist, sister of Mrs. White, left for her home at Anacortes, Wash., after spending several days visiting in the city at the home of her sister.

From Brownsville—R. W. Tripp, one of Brownsville's rustling businessmen, changed cars at the S. P. depot this morning for Portland to attend the Shriners' convention.

Mrs. Dr. Booth Visits—Mrs. Dr. J. C. Booth of Lebanon arrived on the early train this morning to transact business and visit friends in the city.

From Larwood—J. A. Craft of Larwood is in the city for a few days on account of Mrs. Craft undergoing a serious operation in the local hospital. Mr. Craft is a brother of M. B. Craft of the Craft Market.

Visitor from Moline, Illinois—Alice E. J. Weselberg of Moline, Ill., is registered at the St. Francis hotel. She is a relative of Mrs. Dr. W. A. Cox of the city.
