

Cooperation--The Secret of Success

Many a successful farmer and business man will tell you that his banking connection has been an important factor in his success. No bank can render a broader service than its facilities will permit.

Shedd News Notes

SHEDD, July 1.—Special.—On the night of June 19th a car ran over a cow of Rob Arnold's and broke her leg. Mr. Arnold had to kill the cow.

E. W. Shedd has lost three head of milk cows and two more will die. The railroad company had been spraying the grass along the track, and they failed to shut the spray off when crossing the bridge in Mr. Shedd's pasture.

Chas. Carlson and family, also Mrs. R. C. Farwell, were going home from Shedd and tipped their car over in passing a large truck. No one was hurt.

Rev. Stanley Van Winkle, the scoutmaster here, gave a social for the scouts and their sisters. Mrs. Van Winkle had prepared refreshments for the crowd and while the company was playing games in the front room the "Rough Necks" of Shedd broke into the kitchen through the window and stole most of the refreshments.

Mrs. C. C. Prody spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan of Brownsville.

Mrs. R. C. Margson and her cousin, Mrs. Suit and daughter, motored to Brownsville to visit Mrs. Lulu Large.

S. P. Brock and daughter, Tempa left Monday for an outing at McCready Hot Springs in Lane county.

Miss Helen Satchwell is clerking in the Davis-Shedd Co. store.

Mr. Cornett of Shedd is doing some repair work on his buildings. Miss Mina Arnold has been quite sick while visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Nicewood.

The Thompson Bros new grocery store has a full line of groceries in stock now.

Shelburn News

SHELBURN, July 1.—Special.—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Churchill and daughter, Blanche, of Tallman, were Shelburn visitors Sunday.

W. H. McLain and J. W. Miller, two prominent farmers of this vicinity, are erecting new silos on their farms.

The Sunday school rally at the Cole schoolhouse on June 22 was well attended.

Most of the young people of this vicinity attended the party given at the home of Frank Gooch on Thursday evening and everyone present had a very enjoyable evening.

Miss May Stoddart returned home Tuesday from Brownsville where she had been visiting friends the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLain and family visited at the home of D. A. Stoddart Sunday.

Several people of this vicinity attended the funeral of the late John Lenox at the Knox Butte cemetery Monday. Mr. Lenox was the father of Mrs. Alfred Blatchford, formerly of Shelburn.

Uncle Gib. Miller is very low at this writing.

Sodaville Sparklets

SODAVILLE, July 1.—Special.—Mrs. Lena Churchill of Plainview returned home yesterday after spending the weekend here visiting her mother, Mrs. J. F. Hunt.

A large part of our townspeople attended the big Sunday school rally at Waterloo yesterday. Jas. Edwards and wife of Portland and their son George and wife of Everett, Wash., renewed acquaintances here last Wednesday. Mr. Edwards was one of the first residents of this town, but after several years' residence here 30 years ago moved away. He notes with pleasure the many improvements in this community during the interval since he was a citizen of Sodaville.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. O. Klum and wife of Camas, Wash., spent a part of the past week here visiting Mr. Klum's parents after which they went to Pendleton where they will make their home in the future.

Jas. Poznd was summoned to Sweet Home last Friday because of the sudden death that morning of his halfbrother, Martin Herrington, an old resident of this part of the county.

Gates Doing

GATES, July 1.—Special.—The L. L. L. gave a dance in Gates Tuesday night which was well attended. Ice cream and cake was served.

The Gates Sunday school has changed its meeting hour to 10 o'clock a. m. Everybody welcome.

The cemetery society will meet July 10 with Mrs. W. B. Robertson, who promises a picnic dinner on the banks of the beautiful Santiam river. A. J. Munro came out from Quartzville Tuesday of last week.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Munro, who passed away June 18, was laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery Thursday.

Mrs. Roy McDonald entertained the Birthday club June 26. Dinner was served at the noon hour after which the guests played euchre. Those winning favors were Mrs. Jennie Gaines, first; Mrs. R. J. Munro, second. The members were all in.

Y. W. C. A. Provides Home For Actresses at Camp Dix, N. J.

Actresses who play in the Liberty Theater at Camp Dix, N. J., find a touch of home in the Players' House which the housing committee of the Young Women's Christian Association, of which Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is chairman, operates for them. Because of the distance from any town where they might stay, it was necessary to provide some sort of living accommodations for the actresses. The Y. W. C. A. built the house, supplying it with all conveniences such as sewing machines, washbaths and ironing boards. Camp Upton, L. I., has a similar house.
