CITY NEWS

Young Wolfe Returns—

Gerald Wolfe son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wolfe of Gates returned to Albany this noon on his way back to the parental home after an absence of about two years. Mr. Wolfe was in the engineering division and had a wide experience in the real thing as far as hardships and danger are concerned. Mr. Wolfe like his associates who have preceded him is happy to return home and assume the role of a private citizen.

To Visit Here—

Mrs. W. A. Cox this morning received a letter from her granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Cline of Hooper, Wash., stating that she will arrive here Tuesday for a visit while her husband makes a trip to Chicago. Mrs. Cline is a daughter of Mrs. F. A. Hackleman, and Mr. Cline is a son of George Cline, of this city.

Boys Farm Tractor—

Ed Spallinger of near Dever, one of Linn county's most prosperous farmers, yesterday received delivery of a new Fordson tractor. J. A. Jones, another prominent agriculturist of the Dever neighborhood, has also purchased a Fordson.

Fine Crop of Hay—

George M. Zing, a wide-awake farmer of Plainview, has a splendid crop of cheat hay. He has 500 acres in hay, which will yield from two and one-half to three tons to the acre.

Home From Portland—

M. Senders has returned from Portland, where he had been attending to business for the last few days.

Visits Henry Kinzer—

H. C. Compton of Independence was an Albany visitor on his way to Crabtree to visit Henry Kinzer, a prominent citizen who has become paralyzed.

Guest to Bay City—

V. M. Peterson, secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and four other members of the board of supervisors of the Portland division of the S. P. company, left yesterday for San Francisco to attend a meeting of the officers of the organization to be held in that city. The call for the meeting came from Washington to discuss various phases of business now up for discussion before the union.
