SOCIAL & PERSONAL

One of the gayest of this week's social events was the picnicking party of Friday evening when a crowd of young people spent the evening in Bryant Park. A swim in the Willamette was followed by a supper and a roast around a huge bonfire. The crowd returned in the late evening. The guests included the Misses Rita Dowlin, Lois Nebergall, Grace McCalley, Ella Kroschel, Viola Kroschel, Wilma Junkin, Thelma Burnett, Stella Pitman, Dorothy Holbrook, Florence Fortmiller, Elizabeth Eagles and the Messrs. Lloyd Johnson, Elton Gildow, Leo Cox, Percy Lasselle, Gilmore Hector, Harold Irvine, Jennings Cox, Clair Hunt, Charlie King, Amandus Butcher.

Games, races, contests and various diversions were combined to make a most jolly afternoon on Tuesday of this week when the members of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic in Bryant Park. The afternoon filled with many jolly events was brought to a climax with a delicious supper. A large crowd enjoyed the time.

One of the most charming affairs of the week was a shower in honor of Mrs. Bert Davis, given by Mrs. Amos Heister and Mrs. Chas. Avery at the home of the latter. The rooms were made attractive with pink rambler roses and greenery. The hostesses were highly complimented for the attractive way of presenting the gifts, each and every one a beautiful useful article. Streamers of blue ribbon trimmed with pink rosebuds were hung from the chandelier, to a table just below, with a gift package at the end of each streamer and a real "Kewpie" doll on the center of the table. The afternoon was passed socially and brought to a close with dainty refreshments. Those enjoying the hospitality were Mesdames Chas. Bruce, Paul Baker, M. H. Crandall, C. W. Boettcher, John Bryant, B. R. Wallace, Bert Stevens (Newport), Claude Seales (Newberg), Earl Canfield (Corvallis), Ray Beaver (Scio), D. O. Woodworth, Ed. H. Umphrey, Wm. Harvey, H. Eby, Walter Yates, G. M. Knox, R. L. Robertson, Wm. Tohl, Tom Gilchrist, A. Bowers, Albert Scherf, T. P. Hackleman, D. D. Hackleman, Alvie Lineback, Lee Davis, Dick Rogers, G. Goltz, W. M. Van Nuden, Chas. Leonard, Bessie Cyrus, L. M. Carl, Frank Hammerly, H. C. Redeker, J. K. Davis, Frank Horky, Misses Inez Carl, Emma Buckner, Clara Buckner and the hostesses. Mrs. Earl Canfield sang several selections.

The sewing club of the Conner district, No. 8, enjoyed a swim at the Blubb Thursday evening. Those present were Misses Melba Davis, Lena Cox, Frieda Ede, Rena and Florence Harnisch and Mrs. Avis Martin, club leader. More good times were planned.

Thursday afternoon was pleasantly spent by the Needlecraft club members when they passed a social time in Bryant Park. Following the pleasant afternoon a delicious supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eastburn were additional guests.

The Beta Gamma girls were entertained this week at the home of Miss Helen Grigsby on Thursday evening. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed, being served on the lawn. Sweetpeas were attractively used in decorating.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week the Ladies of the Baptist church gave a ten cent tea at the home of Mrs. Rufus Thompson. The afternoon was most enjoyably passed and completed with light refreshments.

Miss Nellie Pate, who left this week on Wednesday for Juneau, Alaska, was the motif for a picnic enjoyed by the members of the Twilight club on Tuesday evening. The party enjoyed the usual diversions and picnic supper, stopping at a pretty spot along the Calapooia.

A pleasant social evening was passed Friday, by the Young Ladies' Missionary society. A covered dish supper was followed by a program and social time.

Charming were the appointments of the luncheon presided over on Friday by Miss Flora Mason, when she entertained several friends, complimenting Mrs. Charles H. Stewart and Miss Eva Simpson (Seattle). Luncheon was served at small tables arranged on the veranda, and daintily adorned with blossoms of the season, carrying out the color scheme of lavender and pink. Places were laid for 12 guests.

Mrs. Joseph Ralston was a hostess of last week. Delightfully entertaining in an informal way, for the pleasure of Mrs. Harry Hobbs of Eugene.

Miss Emily Roberts of Portland, formerly of Paris, Ill., was the guest of Mrs. Charles H. Wieder this week.

A large number of Albany people were in Corvallis Friday evening to attend the dance given at the opening of the new cannery. Hendershot's orchestra from Eugene furnished the splendid music.
