few days, left for her home this morning.

Spent Weekend at Cascadia-- County Agriculturist S. V. Smith and family returned last night from Cascadia where they had been to spend the weekend drinking soda-water and camping out.

Returns from Outing-- Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Howe recently returned from an extended outing by taking an auto trip to various places of interest. Mr. Howe reports the roads in many places very bad on account of construction work.

Prof. Horner Visits--
Prof. J. B. Horner of the O. A. C. faculty was in the city today in the interest of excavating some of the mounds of the Calapooia basin. Mr.
Horner states that there are from 30 to 50 mounds between Albany and Brownsville which no doubt have many relics that would give additional light on the misty past in this valley in prehistoric times. Prof. Horner hopes to interest some organization which is doing research work to investigate a large number of the mounds.

Returns from New Era-- George Cline returned from New Era today where he had been to spend Sunday visiting friends.

Legal Business Trip-- Attorney C. C. Bryant went to Brownsville Saturday afternoon on legal business and to incidentally view the remains of the once flourishing little city.

Moving to Farm-- T. J. Settlemeier and family are moving to their farm near Junction City until after harvest, after which they expect to go to some place in Coos or Curry county.

Marks on Vacation--
Deputy District Attorney Willard L. Marks, accompanied by Mrs. Marks and son went to Newport. Mr. Marks will enjoy a week at Agate Beach, while Mrs. Marks and Robert will spend a month at that delightful resort.

From Lebanon--
W. L. Wallace of Park Place, Portland, and James Koebler of Lebanon were in the city Saturday afternoon visiting friends and transacting business.

Visited at Gates--
Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cyrus of West Albany returned today from Gates where they spent the weekend visiting Mr. Cyrus' brother and taking a brief outing in the mountains.

Visiting Cousins--
Morris Walsh of Canada is here visiting his cousins, Misses Ruth and Irene Barrett.
