The Shantung Question: The storm raised in the United States regarding the Shantung question may have a wholesome effect. It is not one of the main issues, and it would be unfortunate indeed if a minor matter of this sort were allowed to obscure and imperil the more admirable parts of the treaty.

Italy, a pledge from those powers that if she ousted the German from Kiaochow, they would guarantee her permanent possession of the rights Germany had possessed on the Shantung peninsula. China herself acquiesced in that arrangement, by an agreement which the Chinese now say was extorted forcibly by Japan.

JUSTICE IN TURKEY: Enver Pasha, the evil genius who, conspiring with the Germans, dragged Turkey into the war, has been condemned to death by a Turkish court-martial.

Of all the big criminals who plunged Germany into this wicked, bloody and disastrous war, and of all the little criminals who did their bidding or exceeded it, what one has been punished by the Germans themselves, or even arraigned for punishment?

Liquor And Tips: Many and curious are the ramifications of the liquor question. One of the latest phases is this: Waiters in many cities are asking for higher wages on the ground that their earnings have fallen off since the country went dry.

When patrons do not drink, the waiters say, they do not give such liberal tips. So the waiters feel obliged to make up the difference by making employers raise their pay.

It may be too much to hope that prohibition will cure the tipping evil along with others. But it certainly has a tendency in that direction. If it only results in lowering tipping standards to a more moderate and sensible basis, the public will rejoice.

Compared with a certain other country which it is hardly necessary to name, the "Sick Man of Europe" does not seem so sick, after all. There is at least a suggestion of moral and political health.

The most humiliating thing about the Austrian situation is the tolerant almost benevolent way in which the Allies are now treating Austria. It is proof positive of Austria's utter helplessness. If there was anything left of that much-offending country, in the way of population, wealth, ambition or military strength, the Allies would be squeezing the life out of it.

The new Italian premier says he recognizes "the solemn necessity of reducing the cost of living." We should think he would. And here's a friendly suggestion to help along the good work: Reduce the ambitious Italian program of imperial expansion forget about conquests, and start looking after little old Italy.

Dever Notes: DEVER, July 22.—Special.—Miss Alpha Pritchard went to Turner on Wednesday for a visit. Later on she intends going to Portland to visit her grandfather. Ralph Rainey returned Wednesday to his home in Oregon City after spending several days here.

Mrs. Willis Greshong returned on Wednesday from Oregon City. She reports her mother, Mrs. Wm. Rainey, as being in a critical condition.

Grace Foreman spent Thursday afternoon of last week in Salem on business.

V. B. Higbee and wife have moved to the Simpson sawmill where Mr. Higbee is employed.

Henry Bales left Saturday morning on his truck for Hillsboro. He expects to be employed there for some time as truck-driver.

Harry Woodruff went to Philomath on Saturday for a few days' visit.

J. W. Greshong and son-in-law, Don Humphrey, were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Wire and daughter, Miss Margaretta, spent Sunday afternoon at the J. A. Jones home.

Will Hofer made a business trip to Salem last Saturday.

Mrs. Ronald Woodruff came up from Portland Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her parents. She returned Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Albers of Albany has been visiting in this vicinity.

R. A. Marsh is kept busy taking care of his cherries, of which he has an excellent crop this year.

Mrs. Mary Woodruff and two sons, John and James, arrived on Sunday from Montana. They expect to make their residence here.

J. J. Davis has purchased a farm near Sanderson's bridge.

The farmers in this vicinity are busy harvesting their crops. The scarcity of laborers this year is noticeable.

Nose Broken Seven Times: Orville Montleth, who left for the East to visit his mother Wednesday, had the misfortune to receive a broken nose the day before his departure.

A Greater Maxwell is Before You. It is greater in many ways than any of the 300,000 of this very same model. You give it a second look from the curb, for it is refined. You sense more power, less effort from the engine, for it is equipped with Hot Spot and Ram's-horn. You feel a delightful comfort in the seat, for it has better springs and better upholstery. You go less often to the battery service station, for the improved electrical unit saves battery wear. You register satisfaction when you examine the improved top, for the fabric is more durable. And the one that comes last but should not be least in these dollar-counting days is the delight in the value you receive. For such improvements cost money and the price is only $985 f. o. b. Detroit. Post-war purchases for cash have saved you many a perfectly good dollar. DEALERS: Waldo Anderson & Son, ALBANY, OREGON. Includes image of a Maxwell car and a box of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound.

Better Than Pills for Liver Ills. You can't feel so good but what RR will make you feel better. CHICHESTER'S PILLS TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA. Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. W. P. Chilcote's WORK SHOP. General Iron and Woodwork A-No. 1 Horse Shoer. Rubber tires put on buggies. Auto wheels repaired. Corner of Second and Montgomery Streets.
