BOTH MAKE MISTAKES

Every little while someone arises, generally a male person, and scores women motor drivers.

Recently a test driving contest was held in the most congested part of Detroit, and the woman contestant carried off the honors. She drove carefully, briskly, controlled her machine well and entirely disproved the theory that no woman can handle a car as well as a man.

Later she was interviewed; and mentioned two faults rather common among women drivers. The first is that they often expect to be given the right of way by men because they are women, and hence crowd them into tight places, unfairly menacing others and endangering themselves.

The second fault, this driver says, is the tendency of women to gossip with other persons in the car while driving. To this tendency she attributes most of the smashups in which women figure.

As faults in motor driving both points are well taken, but to pin them

Timely Comments and Gleanings of News from Here, There and Everywhere by a Former Editor of the Democrat

Coming once a year, an event always of interest to many former Albany people residing in Portland is the big basket picnic, so far held at the Oaks. Organized eight years ago as an Albany Association, these reunions have been faithfully had, offering a splendid opportunity for old friends to meet again. Otherwise in a big city like Portland they rarely ever meet again when they do, generally hurriedly.

The one this year was held on Friday, July 18, with a crowd between one and two hundred present. The tables were set in the form of a letter A, bountifully filled with high cost foods, enjoyed especially because of the good will and fellowship accompanying the feast.

The Oaks is a very noisy place, a poor one for outdoor talks, though a good one for sightseeing and excitement. Incidentally, the writer, who is president of the Association, presided.

The manner in which the splendid colony of Albanyites responded was gratifying, a compliment to the home town, displaying the high regard in which the place is held by former residents.

Here are some names given alphabetically, each one of which suggests several people: Ashby, Anderson, Adams, Abbott, Bagnell, Burkhardt, Brown, Barr, Beam, Conn, Crosby, Campbell, Crow, Caldwell, Crowder, Churchill, Day, Gantenbein, Goff, upon the fair sex is most unfair. Many a male driver "hogs" the road, taking advantage of precedence, just because he thinks he can get away with it, and often finds that he can't. Similarly the man who is too busy talking to see where he is going is as frequent a pest as the woman.

When it comes to motor driving,

Hammer, Hackleman, Henton, Kent, King, Layton, McBride, Newton, Nutting, Pardoll, Parker, Phillips, Price, Reiner, Rowell, Rickes, Rossiter, Saltmarsh, Smith, Schmeer, Trimble, Tallman, Trites, Westfall, Wolverson, Warner, Wandel, Wyman, Wright, Will Wren.

Fifty families, several in each, exchanging reminiscences, made a gathering that will long be remembered by the happy crowd.

Occurring on the 7th birthday of Harriet Gantenbein, daughter of a former Albany teacher, it proved a double celebration to the Saltmarsh family.

Prof. Carrol Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Day, both former Albany people, led the singing and also was heard in a solo, a fine singer, prominent in musical circles. Geo. W. Caldwell, one of a family of 17 natives of Old Linn, prominent as a public speaker, one of the best in the Liberty Loan drives, gave a short talk, followed by E. E. Goff, down from Newberg with Mrs. Goff and daughter, Mrs. McCune. H. G. Starkweather, recent candidate for governor, whose father took up a claim in Linn Co., C. B. Turley, Fred Newton and others. Miss Lillian Hackleman, secretary of the state central committee of the democratic party, gave a couple of original poems; Frederika, daughter of Frank Campbell, a very bright girl, recently a prize winner in her school, was heard in a recitation and the program closed with Auld Lang Syne.

sex has no place, nor any rights; it is skill alone that counts.

Ash Swale Items - BROWNSVILLE, July 25.—Special.—Willis Colwell of the Ash Swale neighborhood is building a new barn, a carpenter from Lebanon doing the work. This improves the appearance of "Lone Tree Stock Farm."

The Cascade Co. has had a number of extra men this week working installing new machinery, and laying new tracks at their plant at Saddle Butte. They now have 35 men working at the crusher and are getting out from 15 to 20 carloads of crushed rock a day. Ex-Senator Day of Portland, superintendent of the company, was up Sunday looking over the plant and considering more improvements. Fay Mallow is building a new barn on his farm. The barn will be one of the largest in this section when completed; it will be about 100 feet square.

Fall grain in this section will give a good yield. Practically all the farmers are through binding, and spring grain will soon be ripe. The hot weather is ripping grain too fast and will reduce the yield considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Yokum of Marshfield were visiting at the home of Mrs. F. E. Harrison last week. They left for Siletz Wednesday.

Visits in Salem—Mrs. R. Thompson and daughter, Mrs. Allen Banks left yesterday to spend the day in Salem visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson.

C. C. Jackson Pulls Good One—When C. C. Jackson with his boat smile approached Archbishop Christie yesterday evening and gave him the grip of a 33d degree democrat, he thought he was talking to Bryan.

Bishop Christie didn't respond just right and Jackson took the best way out by explaining that his eyesight must be getting poor or something. Bryan did happen to be in town at that particular time and Mr. Jackson, who has served in many capacities in behalf of the party and by the way has hobnobbed with many of its dignitaries, didn't propose to overlook so distinguished a once-been as Bryan.

O. A. McQueen of Tallman was in city early yesterday morning after a piece of machinery to fix his binder, which was broken yesterday.

Registered at St. Francis—T. W. Jenks, a wholesale grocer of Perland, registered at the St. Francis last night. Mr. Jenks travels by auto and reaches his customers in the little towns of the foothills.

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.
