Famous Clown Band Coming

Tow Brown's famous Clown Saxophone Band in "Chin Chin," at the Globe next Tuesday.

"Chin Chin," the musical fantasy in three acts and seven scenes, with a wealth of catchy songs, is scheduled at the Globe Theatre Tuesday, July 29. Many beautiful and startling scenic effects have been achieved and coupled with scintillating costumes, the effect really creates the feeling that the beholder is witnessing the scenes of Arabian Nights. "Chin Chin" is a toboggan of cheer and is three jumps ahead of the average melodic show, with Walter Willis and Roy Binder removing all the heartaches. This pair introduces novelties and laughs in their own immitable and grotesque way, and they slide into popularity with a triumphant crash. The girls are dainty and clad in costumes that make you think you've just awakened in a Hong Kong dream bazaar. All in all "Chin Chin" is the same sunshine offering as of yore.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

Notice is hereby give all property owners that tall dry grass; rubbish and refuse must be cleaned out of all lots according to the ordinance of the city of Albany bearing upon the subject.
