SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Leading in the social functions of the week was the informal afternoon for which Mrs. John Simpson and Mrs. H. H. Hewitt were hostesses on Friday afternoon of this week, at the beautiful Simpson home on Washington street. This affair was given in honor of Mrs. William Bain, a social favorite in Albany previous to her moving to Poplar, Montana. Twenty-five guests were bidden at this time, and spent a pleasant social afternoon at the close of which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Margaret Cathey and Miss Melba Jamieson, of San Francisco.

Clever and unusual decorations will be among the features of the "Harvest Ball," which will be given this evening at the armory by the returned soldiers and sailors composing the American Legion, which will make its initial bow to the public at this time. A large number of American songs will be in evidence, with a cake of golden wheat in keeping with the occasion, also used abundantly. A male quartet will add to the usual part of the Revelation orchestra of Corvallis, and a number of original waltzes are promised. Many out-of-town guests are expected, and from all indications this will be one of the long-remembered dances of the season.

For the pleasure of Miss Evelyn Marshall, who has recently returned to Albany from France, where she was chief nurse at the Verdun base hospital, a most enjoyable picnic was given at Bryant Park on Thursday evening. After the bountiful supper the evening was passed socially along the banks of the river. Present for this were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoigh, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Olliver, Dr.

Mary Marshall, Mrs. Winnifred Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Van Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Floor, Miss Sue Breckenridge, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Olga Hansen of Boone, La., Mr. Ralph Hecker and Miss Evelyn Marshall.

Picnics and outdoor affairs being the vogue during the warmer summer days, a most delightful supper was given in Bryant Park on Tuesday evening. Enjoying this were Miss Velma Davis, Miss Claire Tillman, Miss Volena Smith, Miss Christine Pipe, Miss Vernita Froman, Miss Pauline Burch, Miss Stella Dorgan, Miss Gladys Leech, Miss Helen Essex, Miss Edna Laubner, Mr. Henry Volstedt, Dr. Vernon F. Smith, Mr. Merrill Smith, Mr. Victor Peterson, Mr. Seth French, Mr. Dewey Crawford, Mr. Van Wieder, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shortridge, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cronise and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore.

A jolly crowd of friends of Miss Margaret Gibson were her guests on Friday evening for a delightful lawn party given at her home in North Albany. A large number of Japanese lanterns, with other decorations about the lawn, made an attractive scene for this affair. Clever games and contests planned by the hostess were the diversions of the evening, followed by refreshments. The invitation list included the Misses Bina Reeves, Florence Ryder, Minerva Speer, Virginia Tomlinson, Florence Hunter, Ruth McDaniel, Maude McDaniel, Harriet Van Tassel, Katherine Livenood, Bessie Hoover, Mary Haberly, Ruth Clausen, Anna Holman, Mable Clausen, Helen Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilchrist, and the Messrs.

Raymond Tomlinson, Kenneth Phillips, Palmer Crampton, Cleo Jenkins, Russell Parker, Raymond Archibald, Arnold Haberly, Clarence Hickock, Howard Speer, Robert Boettcher, Lyndon Myers, Delmar Gildow, Seth French, Paul Clausen, Robert Clausen and Bob Stewart.

Honoring Mrs. William Bain of Poplar, Montana, who is spending several weeks visiting with friends in Albany, a delightful picnic was given at Bryant Park on Thursday evening.

Supper was served at 6 o'clock, and the evening was passed socially. Enjoying this were Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Junkin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hod-
