Does it ache especially after exer-

Is there a soreness in the kidney

These symptoms suggest weak kidneys.

Mrs. E. A. Bodine, 413 E. Fifth St., says: "I have known of the value of Doan's Kidney Pills for a number of years and couldn't recommend more reliable medicine for backache and kidney trouble. I am subject to backache and irregular action of the kidneys once in awhile and at such times, I take Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days. They never fail to stop the misery in my back and put my kidneys in good working order." 60c, at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. —Adv.

The Entre Nous bridge club met on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. L. L. Swan on East Fourth street. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with bridge played at several tables, after which the hostess served a dainty lunch. Mrs. Leonard Hurst, a former member of the club, was welcomed back at this time, having returned to Albany to make her home after spending the past year in Portland.

On Wednesday a delightful evening was passed by a group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart, of the state game farm, who entertained at Bryant Park. A dip in the Willamette river was enjoyed, followed by a delicious supper served picnic style. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Straney and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. John Neeley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Elba Burnett and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart.

One of the most elaborate affairs given by the Royal Neighbors was on Wednesday evening of this week, when the husbands and families of the members were complimented with a picnic supper on the lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirk on Fourth and Washington streets. Lovely decorations of sweetpeas were used on the table, and a veritable living room was arranged with benches, chairs, Indian blankets and sofa cushions, for the pleasure of the guests during the social hours. Places were laid for a large number at a long table in the rear. Following the sumptuous supper, a general social time was enjoyed, the ladies occupying themselves with fancywork.

Mrs. John Neeley entertained the Neos Nymph club in a charming manner on Friday afternoon at her home on West Eleventh street. Several enjoyable hours were passed on the lawn, the guests being occupied with sewing and fancywork, a dainty lunch being later served. Additional guests were Mrs. Lafe Compton, Mrs. West (Marshfield), and Mrs. A. R. Solander of Kansas City, who is visiting in Albany at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Wilson.

The Manzanita Circle of the Women of Woodcraft met at their hall on Monday evening and enjoyed a social time after the regular business meeting. A good crowd attended, and refreshments brought the evening to a close.

A birthday party was given yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stenberg at their home at 616 East Fourth street, honoring the first birthday of their nephew, Charlan Stenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stenberg. Twelve little guests were present, accompanied by their mothers. The afternoon was brought to a close by light refreshments.

Our Looking Glass

This is a great tribute to civilization. It reveals our personal appearance. "Man looketh on the outward appearance but God looketh at the heart." Then by what means can man see the heart? Dear Reader, did you know that the Holy Bible was a looking glass that reveals even the innermost secrets of the heart? Can you appear before this glass and say, "I am respectable before God and man?" My Friend, if you cannot look yourself square in the face, how do you expect to meet God face to face at the Judgment? Faith in the blood of Jesus will give you boldness at that great day.
