TRYING TO KILL LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Senators Are Resorting to the Old Parliamentary Device of Killing by Amendment

The immediate aim of the Senatorial plotters against the League Covenant is plain to the view. They are trying to kill the League of Nations. The law assumes that men intend the necessary consequences of their own acts. If the action these Senators urge upon the Senate is taken, it will necessarily destroy the League. They do not even seek to conceal their purpose. They are resorting to the old parliamentary device of killing by amendment. Mr. Knox's hostile resolution, which has gone to its death, has been abandoned for a "qualifying resolution." It is intended that the Senate shall declare in this resolution that its ratification of the Treaty of Peace, so far as it applies to the League of Nations, shall be without effect so far as the United States is concerned until the other nations signing the Treaty shall agree to certain reservations, which are to be substantially those recommended by Senator Root. The Washington correspondent of The Times asked Senator Knox what would happen if the allied nations decline to accept these reservations. "The United States in that event would be outside the League of Nations," Mr. Knox replied, with a smile. Without the United States the League would be a lame and impotent organization; in all probability it would fall to pieces.

Therefore, we may start from the postulate that Senator Knox, Senator Lodge, Senator Borah, Senator Johnson and their associates fully intend the death of the League of Nations and are taking measures to that end. But what is their ulterior aim? Merely to prevent the erection of safeguards against the greatest cause of human suffering cannot be the whole end and aim of their plotting. We know that they have a political purpose—to express their hatred of PRESIDENT WILSON, to discredit him and thereby advance the fortunes of the Republican party. Their tactics and their utterances disclose that motive, it is charged against them by responsible leaders of their own party. But by what strange perverted process of argument have they persuaded themselves that the success of their desperate plot against the League Covenant would improve the chances of the Republicans in the Presidential election next year?

The country is against them. The great sober-minded, reasonable, and patriotic mass of their own party is against them. It is practically certain that they cannot command the support of the majority of the Republican Senators in their desperate adventure. That the Republican party at large condemns their procedure is made evident by authoritative utterances in many States of the Union. An ex-President and an ex-Attorney-General of their own party have condemned them. More than a score of representative Republicans in this city united the other day in a remonstrance against the course they are pursuing. In the West, newspapers of high standing and of unquestioned loyalty to the party are outspoken in denunciation of the thing they are trying to do. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, a great and influential newspaper of unswerving fidelity to Republican principles, declares that "a large proportion of the Republican press favors the League, and there are but few important Republican newspapers that are uncompromisingly against it." In support of this assertion it reproduces upon its editorial page in its issue of June 23, five columns of editorial expressions from Republican newspapers of prominence, all deploring the unwise and dangerous course of the Senatorial opponents of the League. Among these newspapers are The Los Angeles Times, The Portland Oregonian, one of the great papers of the Pacific coast; The Des Moines Register, a representative Republican paper; The Salt Lake Tribune, another sound Republican newspaper; The Topeka Capital and the Globe-Democrat.

The Globe-Democrat calls attention to the adoption of resolutions endorsing the League Covenant by the representative vote of 29,750 to 426 by the American Federation of Labor; to the resolution of the Federation of Women's Clubs, representing 2,000,000 women, declaring its approval of the revised Covenant of the League; it points out that in a canvass of agricultural papers published in forty-three States, only one of sixty-eight opposed ratification of the Treaty with the League and sixty-four unqualifiedly favored it. The attitude of the Church in favor of the Covenant has been made known from hundreds of pulpits. Says the Globe-Democrat: "Here we have labor, agriculture, the Church, the women, and probably business supporting the League. From what source would the Republican Party draw a competing power in opposition to it? It is a pertinent question for leaders of the party."
