Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Beatrice Maurice Sanders to Oren Ault Jenkins was formally made known on Tuesday of this week, when Mrs. Rola Ralston presided as hostess at a charming tea at her home. The privileged guests included a few intimate friends of the bride-elect, who passed a pleasant afternoon together, later repairing to the dining-room. Places were marked at the perfectly-appointed table with 11 cards bearing verses suggesting the secret, which was hidden under the petal of an artificial rose attached to the place-card.

A pink-and-lavender color scheme was carried throughout. A huge bowl of pink-and-lavender sweetpeas adorned the center of the table, while a similar dainty vase bouquet marked the place of Miss Sanders. A very beautiful gift was also presented to the honor-guest at this time, were Miss Lee Fortmiller, Miss Carolyn Wright, Miss Mae Ballack, Miss Corintha Hart, Mrs. Earl Fortmiller, Mrs. Albert J. Rousseau, Mrs. A. C. Jenkins, Mrs. George Sanders, Mrs. Rola Ralston and Miss Beatrice Sanders. Mrs. C. H. Wieder, Mrs. John Ralston, and Mrs. Joseph Ralston served.

Miss Sanders has spent most of her life in Albany and is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies in the city. She will be the inspiration for many showers and social functions during the next few weeks.

Mr. Jenkins is a promising Albany young man. He returned some months ago from service in the machinegun corps of the army. He was stationed for several months at Camp Hancock, Ga., where he received his commission as lieutenant, and was later transferred to Kelley Field, Tex. After receiving his honorable discharge from the army he returned to the University of Oregon where he had attended before the war. He is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

A jolly crowd of young people gathered at the K. of P. hall on Thursday evening and enjoyed a delightful dancing party. The hall was prettily decorated in orange and green. Crepe paper of these colors adorned the lights and prettily shaded the room. A huge punch-bowl was placed in one corner. The music was furnished by Mrs. Glen Junkin.

Those to enjoy this pleasant evening were: Beulah DeLancey, Wilma Junkin, Lanthia Smith, Margaret Cathey and her houseguest, Melba Jamison, Ella Kroschel, Anna Hofflich, Viola Kroschel, Pearl Lasselle, Dorothy Walker, Dorothy Gilbert, Elizabeth Eagles, Opal Hanson, Lee Fortmiller, Harold Irvine, Leo Cox, Jennings Cox, Floyd Scott, Edmund Tracy, Walter Gilbert, Lee Hulbert, Raymond Nebergall, Claire Hunt, Percy Lasselle, Elton Lasselle, Ralph Hecker, Jesse Ellis, Clarence Wiles and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carter.

In honor of her sister, Mrs. S. Stanley Powles of Berlin, Wis., Mrs. W. G. Ballack entertained at her home on Tuesday afternoon. About 20 guests passed the pleasant afternoon in sewing. A very clever contest was also a feature, and Mrs. H. H. Hewitt carried off the prize at this time.

The house was attractively decorated in flowers and greenery, gladiolus predominating.

At the close of the afternoon a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Powles has been visiting for sometime with Mrs. Ballack but expects to leave very soon for her home in the East.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting and social afternoon on Tuesday in the K. of P. hall. The pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing and fancywork, and before the close of the afternoon a watermelon "feed" was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Leonard entertained the Coterie Club in a most delightful way last Thursday evening by a picnic and general good time over on the island. The evening was spent in sewing and conversation, and in the evening the crowd gathered around one of the picnic tables and the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Solander and Miss Myrtle Curry were additional guests.

Miss Margaret Cathey, complimenting her house guest Miss Melba Jamison of San Francisco, entertained Tuesday evening at a delightful dancing party. The couples danced in the beautiful decked rooms and on the cool vine-covered porch. The rooms were artistically decorated in flowers and many cozy corners and benches were to be found throughout the room and on the porch and lawn. The lights were prettily decorated and dimmed with red which cast a pretty soft and dim glow over the spacious rooms. A large punch bowl adorned one corner of the porch.
