An event of Wednesday evening was the musicale given by Miss Flora Mason at her home, 338 West Sixth street, honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Gross of Shreveport, Louisiana. The house was aglow with bright blossoms, the living rooms in wild flowers and autumn leaves, the dining room in pale sweetpeas and ferns. The program was excellent in every detail. Several beautiful selections were rendered. Dancing was a feature of the evening. About 30 guests were present. At the close of the evening Miss Mason served light refreshments.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was given by Miss Salome Cusick in the tea garden of her home at 426 West Seventh street Thursday morning when she invited a number of her young friends to a three-course breakfast complimenting Miss Melva Jamison, house-guest of Miss Margaret Cathey. Miss Jamison will leave Saturday for her home at Burlingame, Calif. The table was centered with roses of several colors in harmony with the trees loaded with autumn leaves which canopied the lawn. Covers were placed for Misses Melva Jamison, Lanthia Smith, Evelyn Robson, Isabelle Young, Ella Kroschel, Dorothy Gilbert and the hostess.

The Arnold Amusement Co. will be with us for five days next week. The proceeds will be used to beautify Central Park, where the carnival will be held. The park committee has gone to some trouble to bring this company here, so all should do their part by going as often as possible, and show appreciation of the efforts of the park board.

Another event of the week honoring Miss Beatrice Sanders and Mr. Oren Jenkins, whose marriage will take place the first week in September, was a moonlight picnic given by a number of their young friends last Saturday evening. The jolly crowd motored to Sulphur Springs where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed. The evening was spent in a social way.

On Sunday afternoon the members of the Junior Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church were guests of honor for a light party at the Globe Theatre for which Thomas Swan was host. Dinner at the Swan residence, 130 East Fourth street, followed.

Miss Lanthia Smith was a charming hostess of the week when she entertained Tuesday evening with a slumber party complementing Miss Melva Jamison of California. The early hours of the evening were spent with music and fancy work. Those invited were Misses Melva Jamison, Salome Cusick, Ella Kroschel, Margaret Cathey, Evelyn Robson.

Mrs. H. L. Stenberg entertained on Thursday at her home at 118 East Second street in honor of her mother, Mrs. B. N. Peterson, it being her 65th birthday. Flowers were used in profusion and the room for decorations. Many beautiful presents were received by the honored guest as a token of remembrance. The afternoon was spent in conversation and a social way, and brought to a close by light refreshments. Those present were Mrs. J. S. Morgan, Mrs. W. H. Worrell, Mrs. J. Jensen, Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. H. V. Merrill, Miss E. Merrill, Mrs. G. L. Porter and Miss Hattie Engstrom.

The first annual picnic of the residents of Sunrise was held on Friday evening in Bryant Park. After a buffet supper was served, games of interest to old and young were enjoyed by all. Readings and songs brought the evening to a pleasant and successful close. Over fifty neighbors and friends were present.

Miss Janet Dawson, Miss Carolyn Cannon and Miss Coffee of Portland started Friday on a hike from Newport to Albany. They spent the summer months on the beaches. The girls are well equipped, and expect to make the trip in about six days.

Miss Flora Mason, Mr. and Mrs. William Gross, Miss Louise Mason and David Mason are society people who motored to Newport Friday.

The Needlecraft club enjoyed a picnic supper in Bryant Park Thursday evening. Their husbands were complimented guests.

The Stewart home at 406 West Sixth street was the scene of a happy reunion Thursday evening honoring Captain and Mrs. W. E. Stewart. The relatives and a few intimate friends enjoyed the evening with music and social conversation. Captain Stewart has recently returned from overseas, where he spent the past two years as an efficient member of the medical corps.

About twenty young people enjoyed a wine and roast in Bryant Park Thursday evening. A general good time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gross of Shreveport, La., were the guests of honor for the prettily appointed dinner presided over by Mrs. R. E. Mason in the beautiful tea garden of the Mason home at 323 West Sixth street on Monday evening. Covers were laid for twelve. Mrs. Gross was formerly Miss Mary Starr, who will be remembered as a teacher at Albany college conservatory of music several years ago and has hosts of friends in the city. They are touring the Western states and Alaska.

The visitation Society of the Catholic church held its regular monthly business meeting Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Otto Karstens, 527 Baker street. Important matters in regard to future work of the society was discussed. Mrs. Karstens served a light lunch.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. I. F. Hadley entertained at her home in honor of Mrs. J. E. Cowan, who leaves today for Portland to make her home.
