SOCIAL & PERSONAL

By Irene Helen Barrett

Probably the most prominent social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Adrianna Perfect and Mr. Jedward J. Looney on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on East First street, Dr. W. P. White officiating. Miss Gertrude Braden attended the bride and Harvey Curry acted as best man. Little Miss Isabelle Perfect, niece of the bride, was the dainty little flower girl, and Master Glen Long, nephew of the groom, was ring-bearer.

Mrs. Looney was wearing in a dainty gown of white organdy. The tiny ruffles of the skirt were edged in fine lace. The bride wore a gown of tulle and hung gracefully from a semi-coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of white sweetpeas. Miss Braden, the only attendant, wore a pretty gown of pink organdy and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Amy Curry, sister of the bride, and Miss Velma Anthony sang "O Promise Me."

The house was prettily decorated in pink and white asters, and the room in which the ceremony was performed was redolent with these flowers and ferns which formed a perfect lattice-work and background for the bride and groom. The burning of pink and white candles cast a pretty soft glow over the room.

Only the immediate families and close friends of the young couple were present.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served.

Mrs. Looney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Perfect. She is a well known Albany girl and is popular among the younger set. She was graduated from Albany high school with the class of 1919.

Mr. Looney is a prosperous young man and was graduated from Albany high school in 1916.

After a brief honeymoon spent at Seaside the happy young couple will return to Albany to make their future home.

On Sunday morning, Sept. 7, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Ashton home, four miles south of this city, when Lucy Pauline Ashton became the bride of John Adolphus Whitaker, of Brownsville, Rev. Geo. H. Bennett, pastor of the Methodist church of Albany, officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Mildren Allen and the groom by C. R. Ashton, brother of the bride. The bridal party came down the stairs to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. D. G. Wilson of Portland.

The bride wore a dress of garnet crepe de chine, elaborately embroidered with steelcut beads, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white sweetpeas, with baby breath and maidenhair fern.

After the ceremony and congratulations, a buffet luncheon was served by Miss Nora Ashton and Mrs. Rova Conn, assisted by J. L. McFarland and D. L. Ashton. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received from the friends of the young couple. They took the noon train for Newport where they will spend a few days before going to their farm near Brownsville.

Mrs. Whitaker is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ashton of Tangent. Mr. Whitaker is a prosperous farmer of Brownsville.

About 35 guests were present.

HAMILTONS'

SEAL PLUSH COATS

NO. 704—A correct interpretation of an authentic Parisian fashion is this fascinating Coatee model of Behring Seal Plush.

The wide band of Hudson Beaver fabric across the back is a particularly clever innovation.

The high collar, also of Hudson Beaver, is unusually effective.

those from a distance being Mrs. D. G. Wilson and son Donald and Miss Lenore B. Ashton of Portland, cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ashton and three daughters, of Halsey.

Complimenting Miss Adrianna Perfect, bride-elect, Mrs. J. B. Gaff extended her hospitality to a group of friends of the honor guest at an informal dinner party at her home on Tuesday evening. Yellow crepe paper and asters hung prettily over the table and a huge bowl of asters adorned the center of the table. After the dinner the remainder of the evening was spent hemming dish-towels for the bride-elect.

Mrs. Grant Birtle was hostess to the Monday Bridge club on Sept. 8 at the St. Francis Hotel. This was the first meeting of the fall season and several business matters were brought up. One of its major importance was the adding of a new table which will bring four new members into the club. One continuous score will be kept until the end of the year and the person holding the lowest score will be obliged to entertain the others with a dinner party.

A charming affair of the week was the dinner party presided over by the Alpha Chi Omega girls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pate on Saturday evening. The rooms were attractive in marigolds and ferns. A four-course dinner was served to the guests seated around small tables centered with marigolds. Places were marked for the Misses Marciel Austin, Lucile Longbottom, Dorothy Lee, Irene Barrett, Opal Hanson, Ethel Bussard, Josephine Lee, Viola Kroschel, Annette Weatherford, Edith Balleff, Margaret Rickard, Verne Powers of Corvallis, Mrs. E. F. Anderson of Wasco, and the hostesses, Misses Nathiel Donaca, Helen Livenwood, Anna Hoflich.

The Pythian Sisters were pleasantly entertained for the first time of the fall season on Tuesday afternoon at the K. of P. hall. The charming hostesses were Mrs. L. M. Curi, Mrs. Harvey Chadwell, Mrs. S. Conn and Mrs. Chas. Carter. The afternoon was spent in sewing and in a social way. Light refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Miss Fern Ruthuff of Portland who has been visiting at the home of Miss Stella Pitman for the past few weeks will return home Sunday.
