Autumn days are busy days for cupid. October in its beautiful red and golden foliage seems to be a strong rival of June and her beautiful roses and early summer flowers.

Most prominent among the fall weddings was the marriage of Miss Ida Bartells and Mr. Claude Carnegie which took place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carnegie on the Lebanon road, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. G. H. Young officiated. The beautiful ring service of the Baptist church being used.

Mrs. Clyde Williams played the wedding march, "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile."

The bride was most charming in a tailored suit of blue broadcloth and carried a shower bouquet of baby roses and sweet peas. Mr. Carnegie wore the conventional black. Following the ceremony and congratulations, refreshments were served in the dining room which was aglow with the season's flowers and ferns. Miss Maud Rolfe presided at the punch bowl. Miss Eva Rolfe, Miss Babie Rolfe and Eva Carnegie served. The bride cut the wedding cake. Miss Eloise Bartells, sister of the bride got the button. Clyde Archibald got the ring.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Peabler, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Carnegie and family, Mr. J. E. Rolfe and family, Mr. Ben Stiffon and family, the Misses Elsie and Dora Bartells of Portland, sisters of the bride, Royal and Clyde Archibald.

The bride is a very attractive young lady and has many friends in the city. Mr. Carnegie has recently retired from over seas duty, where he served with the Canadian Field Artillery 2nd Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie left for a two months wedding tour through the eastern states before returning to their home in Alberta, Canada, where Mr. Carnegie has extensive farm interests.

Charming in every detail was the wedding of Miss Naomi Cline and Mr. Everett Earl Stannard at the home of Mrs. Mary Powell 440 W. 7th St., Thursday at high noon. The Rev. Geo. Young of the Baptist church officiating. The living room was beautiful in green vines interlaced with pink roses. The dining room in pink sweet peas and ferns. The bride was very pretty in a slate colored tailored traveling suit with picture hat to match.

After congratulations a wedding dinner was served. Seated around the prettily decorated table were Rev. Geo. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Earl Stannard, Mrs. Mary Powell and the immediate relatives and a few close friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Stannard is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Rev. C. M. Cline of Grants Pass, and is well known in Albany, having formerly resided at Brownsville. Mr. Stannard is also well known in Albany having assisted in the local registration office during the war. He is also well held a quilling bee at St. Mary's Academy last Wednesday afternoon. Light refreshments were served late in the afternoon. About 20 members were present.

The P. O. E. Sisterhood was royally entertained at Tuesday evening by Mrs. Owen Beam. Two new members, Mrs. Earl Day and Miss Amelia Zahndorf were initiated. The rooms were artistically decorated in pink roses and sweet peas mingled with autumn foliage. The sisterhood entertained as their guest, Miss Grace Evans, who is a member of a Missouri Chapter and is now employed as English teacher in the Albany high school. Light refreshments were served at a late hour to 18 members of the lodge, all of whom defared Mrs. Beam a delightful hostess.

Lebanon, Oct. 10—Max H. Millsap, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Millsap and Miss Mary Wetzel were married Thursday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. H. Wetzel. Rev. J. J. Canoles, of the local Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. The young couple left by automobile for Portland where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Millsap, Jr., are both graduates of the local high school.

Another event to claim the attention of Albany society this week, was the dancing party presided over by Mrs. I. B. Cusick at her beautiful home 426 West 7th St., Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss Street, and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain of Portland. The spacious rooms were aglow with autumn foliage, with its gay and brilliant colors mingled with the season's flowers, dinnies, asters and chrysanthemums. Zinnias, vases of white roses and candles shaded in pale yellow placed about the house, softened the brilliancy making a scene of beauty. About ten couples in evening dress were present. The evening was rounded out with dainty refreshments.

Mrs. John Carnegie presided over a prettily appointed dinner Sunday her home on the Lebanon road, honoring Miss Ida Bartells of Portland and her son Claude, whose marriage took place the following Wednesday. The table was centered with pink and white roses. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Carnegie, Miss Ida Bartells, Miss Nina Bending, Mr. Claude Carnegie, Mr. John Carnegie and the hostess. The afternoon was spent with instrumental and vocal music.

The Misses Maud and Ruth McDaniel were charming hostesses of the week when they entertained with a dinner party at their home, 723 Walnut street, announcing the engagement of Miss Irene Snyder to Nelson Gilmore, whose marriage will take place in the early fall. The living rooms were very prettily decorated in green vines and pink roses. The dining room was attractive in pink sweet peas ad ferns, carrying out the color scheme of pink and green. Dainty cards marked places for about eighteen young ladies. Four courses were served. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening. A special feature being a mock marriage.

About fifteen young people, members of the First Presbyterian church, gathered at the home of Miss Flora Mason on Sixth Street, Friday evening to organize a C. E. Society. Pretty autumn leaves and red berries were gracefully arranged about the rooms.

The program of games and music was very interesting. Some splendid selections, both vocal and instrumental were well rendered. The pleasant evening was closed with light refreshments, prepared and served by the young ladies.

Mrs. Geo. W. Wright was hostess to the 20th Century Club Friday afternoon at her home 732 Walnut St.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus saving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effective lithia-water drink.
