"WATCH YOUR STEP" COMING

Irving Berlin's International syncopated musical success, "Watch Your Step" will come to the Globe Theatre Friday Nov. 7, One Night Only.

This is the attraction originally produced by Charles Dillingham and which ran at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, for six months, at the Colonial Theatre, Boston, for three months, at the Illinois Theatre Chicago, for three months, at the Forrest Theatre, Philadelphia for three months. Now running at Les Farnia Theatre, Paris.

"Watch Your Step" is well named for from the rise of the first curtain until the finish it is "step lively" all the time. It is a melange of tunc-ful music, exceptionally good dancing and witty dialogue. In the beginning a will and a huge sum of money is mentioned. This inheritance is to go to the man who has not been ensnared by a woman and if none such qualify, to a young lady who has not been beguiled by man. There are two condidates and both are led out to "see the town" and temptations thrown their way. This gives opportunity for visits to a stage door, a fox trot palace, the foyer of a grand opera house, a box scene, in the opera house, a sleeping car and a cabaret entertainment.

Principal among the twenty odd songs hit are: "Settle Down in A One-Horse Town", "When I Discovered Rou", "Load Me to Love", "The Dancing Teacher", "The Minstrel Parade", "They follow Me Around", "Show Us How To Do The Fox Trot" and "I Love To Have The Boys Around Me". Mr Berlin has written several new songs especially for this season's tour of "Watch Your Step."
