Lyon's Items

LYONS, Ore., Nov. 6—J. H. Johnson has returned from Portland where he was called on the Federal Grand Jury.

L. C. Trask spent the past week at While Salmon Wash transacting business.

Ray J. Fox, Poland China Hog Breeder has started on the Fair Circuit with some of his Prize Winners. He will make Spokane, Lewiston and Portland.

G. F. Johnson has leased his farm in Fox Valley and moved his family to Salem for the purpose of educating his children.

The heavy rains of the past few days raised the Santiam to such an extent that it washed away the False work for the new steel bridge being put in on the new logging road by the Silverton Lumber Co.

D. H. Mercer of Fox Valley was transacting business in Salem the first of the week.

Mrs. Maude Brotherton of Salem is spending the week with her sister Mrs. J. R. Trask of Fox Valley.

Crabtree Items

CRABTREE, Ore., Nov. 6—Bill Ray closed his blacksmith shop here last Saturday and intends to go to Washington to visit his daughter Emma.

Van Litegrath and family who were renting the Reece place moved last week in to Clyde Reilly's house. The Reece place was recently sold to Mr. Cole of Jodron Valley and he and his family intend to move in at once.

Miss Dorothy Calahan and her mother spent last Wednesday evening in Albany. Miss Calahan attended the banquet at the United Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffman are the proud parents of a 7 1/2 pound baby boy born the morning of Oct. 31. This is Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman's first child. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

A large crowd attended the Hal-lowee dance at the Union Hall Friday night despite the stormy weather.

Carlos Stewart who is working for Jake Chambers on Knox Butte spent Sunday with his folks here.

Ray Sumpter, who has been working in Washington returned home recently.

Crabtree people seen in Albany Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. John Reiley Mr. and Mrs. John Calahan, and their two daughters, Mrs. Sam Stuart, Miss Bernice Reiley Mr. H. C. Asher, Mr. John Crabtree Mr. German and Mr. Jake Bilyeu.

A number of Crabtree people attended the pleasant surprise housewarming near Shelburn Saturday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Michel C. Kelly who were just recently married. A lovely cut glass water set was presented the happy couple. Several Halloween stunts were enjoyed during the evening and cider and doughnuts were served at the evenings close.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reiley of Crabtree attended the wedding supper of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly Sunday night near Thomas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mespel, the brides parents. There was about seventy-five guests.

Another baby boy was born Tuesday November 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Clark. This Mr. and Mrs. Clark's second boy.

The high water Tuesday rather surprised travelers as well as local people. Several cars that attempted to cross the water running across the road had to be pulled out by teams and any amount of cars were compelled to turn around and go back. The train also had quite a time. Some construction work done this fall about one mile north kept washing out. The train passed in the morning although rather risky but in the evening didn't attempt coming farther than West Seio. The favorite pass time during the day was duck hunting. Most any place could be seen boys and men carrying guns hunting the birds that had come out in open land as the water spread over the fields.

France Sells Tobacco

PARIS, Nov. 6—All tobacco shops throughout France are part of a government monopoly of the retail tobacco business. The stores are either owned outright by the government or their operation governed by regulations which require proprietors to act as sub-postmasters. Most of the government-owned shops are conducted by ex-officers on a commission basis. Management of these stores is awarded as a sort of pension substitute.

To Print Bismarck Works

BERLIN, Nov. 6—A Berlin publishing company has announced that it is preparing to issue the third volume of "Bismarck's Thoughts and Reminiscences". The heirs of the Iron Chancellor had stipulated that this volume should not be published during the life of the former Emperor William. The publishers announce that they

Lay a bet on rolling 'em with

the national joy smoke

ROLLING your own cigarettes with Prince Albert is just about as joy'us a sideline as you ever carried around in your grip! For, take it at any angle, you never got such quality, flavor, fragrance and coolness in a makin's cigarette in your life as every "P. A. home-made" will present you!

Prince Albert puts new smokenotions under your bonnet! It's so delightful rolled into a cigarette—and, so easy to roll! And, you just take to it like you been doing it since away back! You see, P. A. is crimp cut and a cinch to handle! It stays put—and you don't lose a lot when you start to hug the paper around the tobacco!

You'll like Prince Albert in a jimmy pipe as much as you do in a home-rolled cigarette, too! Bite and parch are cut out by our exclusive patented process. You know P. A. is the tobacco that has led three men to smoke pipes where one was smoked before. Yes sir, Prince Albert blazed the way. And, me-o-my, what a wad of smokeport will ripple your way every time you fill up!
