M. Averhoff Pays $500 for Duroc Sow

M. Averhoff of Lebanon was in the city Wed., to receive his fine Duroc sow for which he recently paid $500 at the Portland stock show. This is perhaps the highest price ever paid in the state for a hog of this class. However Mr. Averhoff is a successful breeder in his line of stock and is widely known over the state. The sow that Mr. Averhoff has purchased is of the Pathfinder strain the highest strain known to stock men in the East. The sow is to farrow about the 20 of Jan., and three of the pigs at weaning time have already been sold for $11.00 each. The Oregon Agricultural College has bought one, Jess Moss of Sweet Home another and the third has been sold to Mr. Burge of the Dever neighborhood.

CARNIVAL IS MERRY AFFAIR

SHEDD, Nov. 29.—Special—The school carnival which was held at the school house Saturday was a big success. A large crowd attended and all report the program the best they ever heard for some time. A nice sum of about $80. was raised.

The program was divided between the four rooms. An art gallery consisting of various articles of wonderful value was prepared by the high school students; also a booth from which popcorn was sold.

The program was as follows: Miss Margarette Dawson's room, primary, had fairy land scenes, such as "The Story of the three Bears", and various other interesting plays and songs.

Mrs. W. P. Moore's room had Hawaiian scenes and the pupils represented Hawaiian people with songs, recitations and dancing.

Mrs. Daisy Allen's room had a splendid representation of a negro minstrel show. The pupils had their faces blacked and wore clothing such as is seen at most any minstrel show, and sang all the old familiar songs such as "Swanee River", "Old Black Joe"; and they cracked some very striking jokes.

Mrs. Freeland's room had a program of an old schoolteachers new invention for curing rheumatism, which caused everyone to have a good laugh; also a very striking farce, "Recruiting Station," and several selections of music by the high school orchestra.
