Shedd News Notes

SHEDD, Ore., Dec. 20—The recent snow has caused lots of work to many people of this vicinity. Many pumps and pipes are frozen solid and many of them are broken, especially those that the water was not drained from. Skating was the chief sport for many of the young folks for a few days.

The schools have been closed until January because of the cold weather. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hulbert, Mrs. Daisy Allen, Paul Ackerman and C.

C. Aylight were Albany visitors Monday afternoon.

No auto's have been over the highway between Shedd and the Kendall Bridge since last Tuesday morning. Jessie Brock, of Oak Ridge is visiting her parents near here, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brock, for a short while. The China Pheasants and smaller birds are suffering for the want of food and shelter. Many have died already and hundreds will die unless the snow leaves soon.

Miss Alta Allen arrived home Saturday from Harrisburg where she is teaching school. The schools there are closed until the weather gets better and perhaps until after the holidays. Miss Allens parents live in this city.

Most of the farmers have either made sleds or resurrected their old ones from under the snow and are using them to a big advantage. Most of the roads have a good broken track which makes sleighing good for a while at least.

The Hazelwood cream stations water-system is frozen up so that Mr. Dunlap the operator of the station has not been able to have hot water or steam which is a very useful article in his line of business.

The mail carriers, O. B. Connor and Kenneth Robson, have been unable to make their regular trips on their mail routes for several days owing to the deep snow on the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brock arrived at the S. P. Brock home from Haskins a lumber camp in Polk county where they have been working for the past eight months. They expect to stay until after holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Springer arrived home yesterday noon from Grants Pass where they have been visiting Mrs. Springer's relatives for the last two weeks.
