MANY TO HEAR GEN. PERSHING

Commander to Meet Ex-Servicers at Portland; Banquet, Procession fixed

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—General John J. Pershing will be heard by as many former service men as can get into the armory, 400 who will sit with him at the banquet in the Chamber of Commerce and all who may crowd into Portland's public auditorium, when the distinguished officer becomes the guest of this city Sunday January 18. These features have been arranged by committees on banquet and entertainment.

General Pershing is due to arrive at Portland union station at 3.30 P.M. and leave at 11 P. M.

The present plans subject to change provide that the route from the depot to the armory will be over the following streets:

South on Sixth to Washington, thence east on Washington to Third street; to Morrison, west to Broadway, north to Washington, west to Eleventh, north to the armory.

Of Interest To Women

It is calculated that at sixty years of age a woman's chance of marrying is one-tenth of one per cent., or one chance in one thousand.

Girls in Japan are from a very early age instructed in physical exercise, with the result that at maturity the women are almost as strong as the men.

A canvass of motion picture studios has brought to light the fact that a liberal percentage of the successful scenarios is the work of women writers.

Experts who observed the relative work of men and women in munition factories during the war came to the unanimous conclusion that the women were more patient than the men.

It is a curious fact as shown by statistics that, although in the long run women live longer than men, a man of twenty-five has more chances of living to be fifty than a woman of the same age. On the other hand, if a man and woman have both reached the age of fifty, the chances are that the woman will outlive the man, a fact accounted for by the difference in temperament.

Co-operation Asked Of Sportsmen for Protection of Elk

Appealing to the good sportsmanship of the people of Oregon, W. A. Taylor of McCleay is cooperating with Oregon nimrods in an effort to bring about an adequate law, the penalties of which will discourage unscrupulous hunters from destroying the band of 17 elk recently placed in the Abiqua basin, 27 miles east of Silverton reports the Salem Journal.

The placing of the elk in the Silverton hills is due to the uniring efforts of Mr. Taylor who believes that the waste mountain sections can be made to produce a fine crop—of Oregon game—and as the Abiqua basin was once well known elk stamping ground proposes to re-establish them there.

The elk were liberated in the mountains on New Year's day after a tedious and expensive journey from Euter price. The trip from Wallowa county was made under particularly difficult conditions—snow two feet in depth and the mercury registering 45 degrees below zero. The animals were brought through on sleds. That Marion county secured the first portion of the elk for distribution can be attributed to the efforts to Mr. Taylor. The entire plan has been given material and encouragement by State Game Warden Carl D. Shoemaker.

The Wallowa herd from which the Marion county elk were taken, was brought originally from Jackson Hole Wyoming, several years ago. That the animals thrive in Oregon is proven by the increase of the Wallowa county herd from about 25 to 140.

Some Albany College Facts

Dr. Chas. F. Wishart of Chicago, said in Albany last year to a few leading citizens: "Boys, if you really intend to go on making a gilt-edge college I am with you." He is President of the Presbyterian General Board of Education.

Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of New York, said last summer: "Albany College must have more money for current expenses." He is Secretary of the same Board. Then he proposed to give us $15,000 if we raise $15,000 in Albany and $15,000 over the State, to be paid in three years.

ALBANY AND LINN COUNTY MOVE NEXT

Clearly it is our next move. We should subscribe $7,000 to be paid in three years, one third each year, to complete our $15,000. The Commercial Club has endorsed this and appointed a committee to co-operate with the trustees.

This week and next—the time for this.
