Hospitality Houses for Poor Mexicans Brings Appreciations From Others

EL PASO, Texas.—With sympathy and understanding as its masonry, an intangible international bridge is being constructed here by Mrs. Georgia B. Burlingham, wife of Lloyd Burlingham, American consul at Salina Cruz, Mexico.

Mrs. Burlingham is the director of the hospitality house that is maintained on the American side of the Rio Grande by the national board of the Young Woman's Christian association. This institution helps the new immigrants into the United States from Mexico—especially the women and children—by taking care of their bank checks, furnishing them with lists of reliable boarding houses, and providing them with a place to rest in while their passports are being arranged for.

Effort has been made to interest Mexican officials in Juarez to co-operate with the American authorities in taking care of the new arrivals here. It is reported of all the Juarez officials that have been approached so far, none has refused to aid in the work. The underlying plan is to bring the two countries to a closer understanding.

DID YOU EVER USE SLOAN'S?

Keep it handy to promote prompt relief from rheumatic pains and aches

WHEN you know what Sloan's Liniment will do, as thousands of men and women the world over know, you, too, will keep it handy. You will use it for those "twinges of rheumatism," for relieving that lame back, muscle stiffness and soreness, aches, all sorts of external pains, and exposure after frosts.

Only takes a little, applied without rubbing. Soon penetrates, scattering the congestion, bringing merciful relief to the throbbing, jumping part.

Three sizes—35c., 70c., $1.40. Any drug store has it. If not, we'd like to know its name.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more yawning, snuffing, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, our bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

PORTLAND WINS GREAT VICTORY

L. C. C. Decision Means Shipment of Grain Down Columbia River

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Portland came out victorious Wednesday in the main issue of the Portland rate case in a tentative report made by examiners of the interstate commerce commission to that body.

Class rates from points in the inland empire south of the Snake river to Portland and Vancouver were found unjust insofar as they exceed rates to Astoria, Seattle and Tacoma reduced by certain differentials, and commodity rates to Portland from points in the same territory were found unjust insofar as they exceed 90 per cent of the rates to Astoria, Tacoma and Seattle.

Would Consolidate Lines
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Compulsory consolidation of the railroads into a few great corporations before they return to private control, with the public and labor, as well as capital, presented in the management of the system, was advocated tonight by Director-General Hines in an address before the New York City Bar association.

REDSKINS EAT AND THEN STARVE

Great Feast Held in Which all Food is Stowed away; Hard Times Follow

CORDOVA, Alaska.—A play, a dance and a feast, winding up a season of plenty, was responsible for the near extermination of the Quigillingok tribe of natives last winter and spring according to John H. Kilbuck, superintendent of schools for the Kuskokwim river district. The famine following the feast, Mr. Kilbuck said in his annual report to the Bureau of Education, caused the deaths of at least 42 of the natives, and would have wiped out the entire clan had not missionaries come to the rescue with a meagre supply of food.

The tribe, Mr. Kilbuck said, stored up great quantities of fish during the summer and fall seasons. In celebration of their good fortune, they invited other tribes to attend a "kuy-gag-yagag", featured by a play, a "white man's dance" and the giving away of food. When it was all over, the guests were millionaires in the currency of the section, while the hosts were paupers.

It will be years, Mr. Kilbuck declares, before the Quigillingok recover from the effects of their generosity.

Baker Business Makes New Buildings Rise

BAKER, Jan. 8.—Upon discovering that its business for 1919 was 33 1-3 per cent larger than during 1918, the Basche-Sage company announced today that its need for additional warehouse facilities will be filled next spring by the construction of 1,000 feet of floor space in an addition to the big warehouse near the O. W. R. & N. depot.

Plans for the addition have been taken toward construction, pending further arrangements.

BAKER, Jan. 7.—That Baker people are wealthier by $500,000 this year than they were at the beginning of 1918 is indicated by the annual reports of the three local banks compiled today. This increase is shown by the deposits which have grown rapidly throughout the whole year.

163 Miles Paving Laid Season of 1919

SALEM.—The state highway commission, in the construction of roads and bridges during the year 1919 expended a total of $6,811,335.32.

A total of 318 miles of paving was under contract, of which 163 miles have been completed. Approximately 218 miles, or 43 per cent, remain unfinished.

Of the 316 miles of rock and gravel contracted 107 miles have been completed. Grading contracts awarded totaled 825 miles, of which 270 miles have been completed.

"GOOD OLD DAYS" RECALLED

Century-Old Ledger Unearthed in Marietta, O., Makes Some Rather Interesting Reading.

Marietta, O., in 1797 paid $400.04 for the maintenance of the government, according to a ledger just brought to light from its hiding place of many years.

December 28, 1797, was the date of the first entry in the book. Six years later Ohio became a state.

The county at that time was three times as large as it is today. The tax duplicate showed a total of $1,310. In the territory allotted to Washington county in 1797 were the towns of Marietta, Gallipolis, Middleton, Adams, Waterford, Salem and Bellepre now Belpre.

Six collectors were appointed, with headquarters in Marietta, and these men made their rounds in the "wild land" at the risk of their lives for a wage of $9.55. Indians surrounded the villages, so the tax collector was often lucky to return "body whole."

In 1798, according to the ledger, the district was divided into nine sections, instead of six, and nine collectors were chosen. Names of the men are given and their places of residence. The commission chose a board of three members and named a chairman in that year.

Meetings were held at the home of Joseph C. Lincoln, a Revolutionary war hero, and a member of the original Ohio company which settled in Marietta, the first town in Northwest territory.

Judges received 75 cents a day whenever they worked on the bench, the ledger records show. There were quarterly sessions and a judge for each session. Six cents a mile was paid a judge for each mile traveled. The foreman of the grand jury received 80 cents a day and the jurymen 50 cents and 3 cents a mile for travel to and from court.

Disbursements for advertising in Atlantic coast and New England town papers are mentioned in the ledger, showing advertising was a necessity in that day.

Roumanian Military Men Dandies.

The Roumanian, at least the city resident, is extremely fond of perfume, scented soap, rouge, cosmetics and other artificial aids to beauty. This applies not only to the women but to the men.

The average young Roumanian army officer is scented, powdered, rouged and often, it is said, corseted! His habits mark him for a good deal of rallery on the part of foreign officers and visitors. In dress he is as faultless as a Beau Brummel and in manner as polite as a Lord Cheserfield. He is seen at his best on Saturday or Sunday afternoon on the Cause Victoria (the Fifth avenue of Bucharest).

Dressed in a sky-blue uniform, gaudily trimmed with red, high patent-leather boots with silvered spurs that clink mustelously as he walks, glistening sword at side, white kid gloves and many military decorations, he makes a striking figure.

Answered the Purpose.

The assignment in the English composition class at Scripps to the supplying of the feminine equivalent term when the teacher gave out the masculine term. All was going lovely, duke with the answer duchess, marquis and marchioness, but "lord" brought no answer until Johnnie stumbled on to his answer out of his everyday vocabulary—"lordy."

New Use for Photography.

The gas meters in New York are to be read by photograph. Meter readers employed by the gas company will be equipped with small cameras which fit over the indicator on the meter. By pressing a button light is thrown on the dial and exposure made, showing the amount of gas consumed since the last photograph.

Reopening Irish Copper Mines.

The old copper mines of Ardmore, in County Waterford, Ireland, are to start working again. Engineers state that the cliff still possesses rich lodes of copper ore, and the Drumm hills have workable deposits of coal. It is proposed to start work at once with 300 men.

Easy for Papa.

Little Joe's father had died and after the funeral Joe called his mother and asked: "Mamma, where is daddy?" "In heaven, dear," his mamma replied. Joe exclaimed: "Oh, gee, ain't that nice; he can see all the ball games free."—Chicago American.

Puzzled at Sink's Thirst.

My little daughter, after watching me pour a bucket of water into the sink and seeing it disappear, said: "Oh, daddy, does the sink drink water, too?"—Chicago American.

Spain Wants Cotton.

To encourage cotton raising in Spain the government will give cash prizes to the foremen and laborers who most distinguish themselves in its cultivation.

To Be Expected.

"The doctor pronounced it a case of auto-intoxication."
"I don't wonder with the supply I saw under the back seat of his car."

Noisy Eruption.

From a story: "Yells of joy articulated up his throat."—Boston Transcript.

Contract Collies Turn To French Opera

PARIS, Chinese contract laborers brought here during the war have given a play in the Noire theater for the benefit of French War Orphans. Most of the men were illiterate when they came to work behind the fighting fronts. They learned to read their own language and are making progress in French under Y. M. C. A. institutions.

Bananas and Water Weigh Down Marine

ATLANTA, Ga.—"Plenty of bananas washed down with a couple quarts of water."
This was the weight-building prescription which a friend gave to Frank Shipp, of Columbus, just before he applied for enlistment in the United States Marine Corps here.

Shipp is no heavyweight, and he feared that he would not pass the examination. So he filled up on bananas and water. The medical officer feared Shipp had dropsy. He was swelled around the equator that the doctor thought he had swallowed a watermelon whole.

Shipp confessed to the bananas and water, but after the swelling went down he was found to be heavy enough and was enlisted.
