Anti-Pool Hall Law Brings Forth Dominoes

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 3.—Dominoes. DALLAS, Tex. — Dominoes have taken the place of pool halls and pool in a number of pool halls here. The pool tables have not been removed but are covered, and the cues are racked. Soft drinks and cigars are being sold in some of them.

A few pool halls have closed in accordance with the recent federal court decision upholding the Texas anti-pool hall law.

Absurdly Clever
 A group of workers were lunching in a sheltered nook on a wharf. One of them went across the street for a plug of tobacco, and during his absence another substituted for his tin of pale coffee and with his own tin of milkless black coffee.

When the first worker returned to his lunch he could hardly believe his eyes. "Well," said he, "I have heard of clever thieves, but to swipe the milk out of a feller's coffee is about the limit!"

Sporting Notes

Dick O'Brien, the Cincinnati boxer, has gone to San Francisco in the hope of getting a bout with Slapper Meekhan.

Bobby Roth, recently traded to Washington, has been a member of half the teams of the American league—Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and Washington.

The champion Cincinnati Reds and the Washington Senators have arranged to play 14 exhibition games during the spring training trip.

Walter Cox, the Grand Circuit pilot, has completed the removal of his entire racing stable from Dover, N. H., to Laurel Hill Farm, Indiana.

If names count for anything Runar Ohman, the Swedish champion, should be a likely contender for Marathon honors in the big Boston event next April.

Sam Langford, the colored heavy-weight, plans to go to England in March. Sam also will box in Paris if suitable matches can be arranged.

Eastern members of the rules committee of the American Wrestling association want the toe hold barred, while the Western members desire to retain this particular grip.

"Babe" Ruth's demand for a $29,000 pay envelope must mean that the film depicting the home-run champion as a movie hero is about to be released. Publicity gets the kale.
