COLLEGE GIRLS ENTERTAIN FOR B. B. TEAM

One of the most diverting functions on the week social calendar was the banquet tendered the Albany College basketball team by the college girls Thursday evening at Tremont Hall. The large dining room was attractive in the college colors, orange and black. The massive table was centered with carnations. The place cards were in the form of basketballs shaded in the orange and black. Many lights shaded in the college colors caused a pretty and cheery scene. Dr. Wallace Howe Lee was Toastmaster. The first toast by Miss Maud McDaniel to the team, and was responded to by Alva Star, captain. The toast to the faculty was given by James MacNab. The toast to the students by Prof. R. U. McNeal was an original poem which was very clever and interesting. The toast to the coach, Prof. McNeal by David P. Martin was followed by college yells led by the college yell leader. The boys left for McMinnville Friday where they played McMinnville College. Tonight they will play Pacific College at Newberg.

MRS. HUMPHRY IS HOSTESS TO S. S. CLUB

Mrs. Thomas Humphry was a charming hostess to the S. S. club Thursday afternoon. Her home was attractive in vines and potted plants. The afternoon was taken up with fancy work and social conversation. Mrs. Humphry served a bountiful lunch. Guests of the club were, Mrs. West and Mrs. Bert Stephens.

MISS AUSTIN ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Lee Fortmiller was the motif for a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Marcel Austin at her home on Montgomery Street Thursday evening. The rooms were attractive with huge bouquets of lavender chrysanthemums. The evening was spent socially in games and music; many beautiful piano selections being rendered by Mrs. Winifred Worrel. A feature of the evening was the passing around of white hearts and pencils by Miss Austin and each guest was asked to draw a picture. This contest was judged by Mrs. E. F. Niles, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, Mrs. L. H. Fish, and Mrs. O. D. Austin. The decision resulted in a tie between Miss Margaret Cathey, Miss Salome Casick, and Miss Dorothy Lee. They drew for the prize and Miss Cathey was the lucky one. The shower gifts were given out in a most clever way when Miss Austin repeated an original poem to Miss Fortmiller and, at the same time, asked her to follow the dainty baby ribbon, which was wound about the rooms and finally led into the dining room where a monstrous artificial rose was found containing the gifts.

On opening these Miss Fortmiller found many beautiful and useful articles. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess, assisted by Miss Nita Bilyeu. Those present were the Misses Margaret Cathey, Ianthe Smith, Dorothy Lee, Viola Kroschel, Ethel Bussard, Josephine Lee, Salome Casick, Lucile Longbottom, Irene Barrett, Florence Fortmiller, Helen Livengood, Nita Bilyeu, Ruth Barrett, Kate Stewart, Flora Mason, Mrs. Edmund Anderson, Mrs. G. E. Fortmiller, Mrs. E. F. Niles, Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mrs. Winifred Worrel, Mrs. F. C. Pate, Mrs. O. D. Austin, the honor guest, Miss Lee Fortmiller, and the hostess.

MRS. FISH IS ENTERTAINING HOSTESS AT SHOWER PARTY

By Irene Helen Barrett
Telephone 225-R.
Mrs. Leon H. Fish was a charming hostess Saturday afternoon when she entertained at her home on West Sixth Street, with a tea towel shower honoring Miss Lee Fortmiller, bride-elect. The guests took their towels unhemmed and made them there, and a prize was given for the best needle work. A short interesting program was a feature of the afternoon. The opening number was a vocal solo by Mrs. P. R. Kelly. This was followed by a stunt by Miss Wilma Junkin and a prologue by Miss Marcel Austin. The dining room was attractively decorated in pink carnations and pink shaded candles, which cast a pretty, soft glow over the room. In the center of the room was a pretty table adorned with carnations. At this table sat Miss Fortmiller and five other ladies who drew the lucky numbers and were fortunate in getting to sit at the lone table with the bride-elect. Miss Fortmiller poured. The little Misses Helen Pugh, Georgia Wright and Louise Mason assisted the hostess in serving. The guest list included the Misses Janet Dawson, Isabella Young, Harriet Van Tassel, Ruth Livengood, Nita Bilyeu, Marcel Austin, Katherine Livengood, Carolyn Wright, Irene Barrett, Corintha Hart, Mae Ballack, Bertha Lee, Ethel Bussard, Joseph Lee, Wilma Junkin; the Mesdames Fred Fortmiller, Wallace Howe, Lee, E. HELMAN-LEWIS WEDDING IS PRETTY AFFAIR

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Bertha Lewis and Mr. Henry Helman which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Butler Wednesday morning at 10:30. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. J. C. Spencer of the First Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of a few friends. The beautiful ring service was used. The bride was prettily attired in a white silk gown, with picture hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. She is a charming young lady and has been a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Butler since childhood. Mr. Helman is a progressive young man who has been employed by the Hammond Lumber company for several years. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Helman left for Mill City, where an elaborate wedding dinner was enjoyed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clara Coplinger. Mr. and Mrs. Helman will live in Mill City where a beautiful home has been prepared.

Mr. W. H. Holt of Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fullerton and daughter Naomi of Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Butler. Mr. Holt is a brother of Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Fullerton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butler.

MRS. TORBET ENTERTAINS KENSINGTON CLUB

Mrs. Robert N. Torbet was hostess to the Kensington club at her home on West Eighth Street Tuesday afternoon. A short business meeting was held and three new members were elected to membership in the club at this time. Following the business session the afternoon was spent in music and conversation. A delicious luncheon was served around a prettily appointed table, attractive in pink carnations and shaded candles. Mrs. W. L. Marks and Mrs. Arthur Slomack, of Farmland, Ind., were additional guests.

MONDAY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. H. LEZ

The Monday club met with Mrs. Wallace Howe Lee Thursday evening. Mr. J. C. Irvine presided over the meeting. A very interesting paper, "Bolshevism in America," was presented to the club members by Mr. C. E. Sox. This was followed by a debate by Mr. A. C. Schmitt and Mr. J. H. Ralston on the same subject. Then a general discussion of the subject was held by all present. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Republican Senators Talk Economy With one Hand and Appropriate Cash

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Time has come when more constructive action in Congress and less talk would be more acceptable to the people in the opinion of Representative Byrns of Tennessee, ranking Democratic member on the House Appropriations committee. His remarks were occasioned by the many speeches by the Republican leaders relative to appropriations and in which it was contended the total authorizations by Congress during the next year must not exceed $4,000,000,000.

"We should get down to business and devise a system by which we may know accurately the financial demands upon our Government," said Mr. Byrns. "We should create an efficient budget system. Then we would have more opportunity to talk about what should and what could be done."

Standard Return To Railroads To Continue 6 Months

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—A. P.—Continuation of the standard return to railroads for a period of six months after the termination of federal control was agreed upon by the Senate and House conference on railroad legislation today.

The constant drip of water
Wears away the hardest stone,
And the constant gnaw of Towser
Masticates the hardest bone;
The constant cooing lover
Carries off the bashful maid,
And the constant advertiser
Is the one who gets the trade.
