MRS. STEWART HONORED AT RECEPTION PRETTY HOME WEDDING IS WEEK'S EVENT

One of the most elaborate functions on the week's social calendar was the reception tendered Mrs. Robert Lansing Stewart, a bride of recent date, this afternoon, by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, Mrs. Joseph Ralston, and Miss Kate Stewart. The living rooms of the Stewart home were most attractive in pink chrysanthemums. A few potted plants were placed about in artistic effect.

Assisting the hostesses in entertaining were Mrs. C. E. Sox, Mrs. J. C. Irvine, and Miss Flora Mason. The little Miss Josephine Ralston and Elizabeth Beam answered the door.

In the dining room the color scheme was yellow. Those who poured were: Mrs. R. E. Mason, Mrs. P. A. Young, Mrs. Dan Johnston, Mrs. L. E. Hamilton, and Mrs. E. D. Cusick. Miss Volena Smith, Miss Stella Dorgan, Miss Christine Pipe and Mrs. Ralph R. Cronise served. About 100 guests called during the afternoon.

MRS. SOX ENTERTAINS LEISURE HOUR CLUB—

Mrs. C. E. Sox was a charming hostess of the week when she entertained the Leisure Hour club, Friday afternoon at her home on West Fifth St. The twenty-four books which were used by the twenty-four members of the club throughout the past year will be given out in a drawing at this time. The rooms were pretty in chrysanthemums and ferns, at the close of the pleasant afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. About 12 additional guests were present.

VENERABLE GUESTS ATTEND BIRTHDAY DINNER—

A very unique affair of the week was the mid-day dinner presided over by Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sloan in compliment to their mother, Mrs. E. D. Sloan on Thursday, honoring her 78th birthday. The dining room was attractive in the red and green colorings, and a massive basket of red carnations centered the table. Red and green place cards marked covers for five venerable guests. They were Mrs. Uphon, aged 84; Mrs. Johnson, aged 86; Mrs. McClung, aged 80; Mrs. George, aged 84; and the honor guest, Mrs. Sloan, aged 78. Others present were, Mrs. Sarah Sloan and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sloan.

ZECK-ISOM WEDDING IS PRETTY AFFAIR—

A very simple, pretty wedding occurred Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock when Miss Blanche V. Isom became the bride of Bannee Zeck of Heppner, at the home of the brides parents, Rev. G. H. Young officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Isom. She is a graduate of the Brownsville high school, attended Monmouth Normal and is popular in school and social circles. The groom is a popular young man of Heppner, and served overseas with the famous 91st division.

After a happy honeymoon spent at Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Zeck will be at home to their many friends in Heppner. Present at the wedding were Imogene Isom, of Portland, a sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Zeck of Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Orland Zeck of Lebanon; Mrs. Thomas Barker of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Isom of Albany; and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Isom.

MRS. HACKLEMAN ENTERTAINS LADIES AID—

Mrs. D. D. Hackleman was a delightful hostess on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the Aid Society of the Grace Presbyterian church at her home in Hackleman's Addition. A short business session was held, followed by a social hour. Red and green was the pretty color scheme used and evergreens and red carnations were attractively arranged about the rooms. At the close of the afternoon light refreshments were served by the hostess. Among the members present were the Mesdames McGee, Wortley, H. Burkhardt, Clark Price, Newton, C. C. Bryant, C. O. Watrous, E. Burnett, Geppard, Fred Walters and the Misses Lettie Pratt, Ada Pratt, Priscilla Watrous, and the hostess Mrs. D. D. Hackleman, Mrs. W. G. Stanford, Mrs. Rollin Hackleman, Mrs. A. P. Howells, and Mrs. Robert Branch were additional guests.

A very beautiful home wedding occurred Thursday at high noon, when Miss Annie Lee Fortmiller was united in marriage to Clarence E. Wiles. Dr. Wallace Howe Lee, uncle of the bride, solemnized the marriage, using the beautiful ring ceremony of the First Presbyterian church. The Fortmiller home, where the wedding took place, was artistically decorated; palms, ferns, Oregon grape, and chrysanthemums being used in profusion. Miss Fortmiller and Mr. Wiles entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Hubert Fortmiller, brother of the bride. The bridal couple stood before a pretty embankment of ferns and palms, adorned with green and white, which color scheme was carried throughout.

The bride was very charming in an elaborate gown of moonbeam satin. Her flowing tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of real orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was unattended.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Hazel Hockensmith Ewing sang "Because" and Mr. Clare Lee, of Junction City, uncle of the bride, sang, "O! Promise Me." The latter was accompanied by Hubert Fortmiller.

Following the services a dainty buffet luncheon was served by Miss Florence Fortmiller, Mrs. Clare Lee of Junction City, Miss Corintha Hart, Miss Ruth Livengood, and Miss Bertha Lee. The table, from which the luncheon was served, was very prettily adorned with bows and streamers of rainbow tulle, together with white carnations. Miss Frances Wiles of Eugene, cousin of the groom, got the ring in the cake. Miss Mitchell, a sister of Mrs. Wiles in Pi Beta Phi, caught the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Wiles is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller. She has spent all her life in Albany and was graduated from Albany high school with the class of '18. She later attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is one of the most attractive and most popular young ladies in the city, and is well known in social circles.

Mr. Wiles is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wiles. He has likewise spent most of his life in Albany and is one of Albany's most popular and progressive young men. He was graduated from Albany high school, with the class of '17. He attended O. A. C. and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He enlisted in the engineering corps of the army during the great world war and spent several months in France in active service.

Mrs. Wiles traveling suit was an attractive tailored brown broadcloth, hat to match.

After the extended honeymoon trip to points believed to be in California, they will be at home to their many friends on the Wiles farm, nine miles from Albany, where a beautiful new modern bungalow has been prepared for them.

BANQUET AT M. E. CHURCH IS ENJOYED—

A special feature connected with the Evangelistic services of the M. E. church was the big banquet held last Thursday evening. A very enjoyable and well received speech entitled "Unlikely Places," was given by Dr. Geo. M. Parkinson of Corvallis. A delightful program was another feature of the evening. Several pleasing vocal selections were rendered by the male quartet. Mr. A. M. Manner, Mr. J. G. Minton, Dr. W. H. Lee, and Mr. C. M. Kendal compose the quartet. The sumptuous banquet was served by the ladies of the church and to them much credit is due for the great success of the affair. About 100 were present.

S. S. S. CLUB ENTERTAINED

At McBRIDE HOME—
Miss Laura McBride was hostess to the S. S. S. club at her home in Sunrise Friday afternoon. The McBride home was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and greenery. After a pleasant afternoon spent in music and social conversation, light refreshments were served by the hostess.
