ALBANY WANTED Absolute Dependability

Fire Chief Price could not depend on horses to pull the fire engine. He knew he must have an unfailing course of power; hence the purchase of a Fordson Tractor to pull the Fire Engine. Mr. Farmer, are you still clinging to the old style of horse farming, or are you going to join the progressive class of power farmers?

These Linn County men use Fordsons. You know many of them. Haven't you noticed that these same men are in the successful class, that they are noted for getting the most out of their farms? Profit by their judgment and experience. Decide today that you are going to go in for power farming and increase your crops.

Order your FORDSON today; first carload due here next week, all sold. Don't delay—
