One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems of the loveliest kind and perfectly matched. Her Majesty wears eight rows round her throat and four long ropes, representing twenty one strings, one for each of the birthdays during her married life.

It has been estimated that about 250,000 tons of steel fly away in from the railways of the world yearly.

ROOSEVELT HOME TO BE RESTORED

Women Plan to Make House Developing Place of Sturdy Americanism

NEW YORK.—The birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt at 28 East Twentieth street, New York, is to be restored as nearly as possible to its condition in 1858, according to the officials of the Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association following a recent conference here with Theodore Pope (Mrs. John W. Riddle), the architect having the plans in charge.

An adjoining house at No. 26 has been purchased and both structures will be remodeled to conform to the architecture of the time of the former President's birth. They will have brownstone fronts and mansard roofs and the interior of No 26 will be made to resemble the boyhood home of the great American. Old mantels, chandeliers and furniture will be put back in place and childhood friends of the Colonel will supervise the decorations.

A Rooseveltian library consisting of his books of rugged outdoor life and Americanism and other writings and published speeches will be placed in the house at No. 26. Many other volumes the Colonel liked to read and dealing with many phases of human Knowledge will be placed on the shelves.

According to the architect's plans the top floor of both houses will be utilized for an assembly hall, suitable for gathering of Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls or similar patriotic organization. When completed the memorial is intended to serve as an institution for the development of sturdy, old-fashioned Americanism. Members of the committee having the project in charge include Mrs. Frederick Nathan, Mrs. James Russell Parsons, Mrs. Henry L. Stimson, Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, Mrs. Henry A. Wise Wood, Mrs. William Curtis Demarest, and Mrs. John Henry Hammond.

It is the habit of bees to place their honey in the coolest place in the hive, and the young insects in the warmest.

It is true that the sheer beauty of the Liberty has taken the style centres of the country by storm.

But Liberty success is infinitely more than a fashionable vogue, because it is built on performance, even more than beauty of design.

New York is no more enthusiastic over the graceful lines of the Liberty, than the wonderful smoothness of its performance.

And New York is no more enthusiastic over either, or both, than this community of our own.

If you will give us the opportunity to show you how the Liberty rides and drives, you will see that the wonderful things which have been said of it are not one bit overdrawn.
