

MAGIC IN GOLD AND HUMOR

How Happy Combination of the Two Put End to "Run" on Famous English Bank.

A story is told, with some reservation, by a London paper, concerning the grandfather of the well-known Quaker peer, Lord Peckover. The story goes that, during a run on the bank of which he was a principal, at one time known as that of Gurney, Birkbeck, Peckover & Co., he exhibited, within sight of the counter, bags full of gold, surmounted by a peck measure, also filled with sovereigns. "You see," he explained to the depositors anxious to draw their balances, "that there is enough money for you all, and a peck over." This is said to have terminated the run. Such is the magic of gold, and of humor. One feels by no means certain that stacks of "fivers" would have achieved the same happy result. Or, to revert to the time of George III, when the sum of twopence was represented by a solid two-ounce coin, would a large pile of these weighty "cartwheels" have allayed the fears of the small depositor? No! Not even a warehouseful!—Christian Science Monitor.

Hope Not All Abandoned.

Miss Threepence was watching the grizzly bear in his new cage to the northwest of the lion house. A recently constructed chain of bear and other animal cages there has added immensely to the attraction of the place.

Somebody threw the old grizzly a peanut, and then another, but both nuts hit the bars and fell just outside the cage. The bear reached his paw through and tried to scoop the tempting nuts in, but his long, yellow claws seemed to be in his way.

He had to use his claws as a sort of rake, and the spaces between the prongs of his rake proved too wide, so the peanuts slipped through.

Miss Threepence was most sympathetic. The poor bear couldn't get his peanuts. But there was yet hope. The keeper would be around shortly with the bear's dinner, and then—

"Maybe he can get it with a fork or a 'poon," she said.—Washington Star.

Didn't Work Out Right.

A languid society lady was visiting a charming young social lady, and as they sat on either side of the fire his heart was full of the burning desire to say something, not only complimentary, but brilliantly flattering. So, after revolving the matter in his mind, he said: "Ah, Miss Lillie, why are those fire-tongs so like me?"

He meant her to guess, or ask him to tell her, "because they were prostrate at her feet," or something of that kind.

Miss Lillie, looking solemnly demure, said she didn't know, unless it was because they had two thin legs and a brass head.

He was groping blindly for the front door before she had recovered from the shock of her own volley.

"The Woman Who Fed London."

One of the most interesting figures brought into the limelight of publicity during England's great railway strike was Miss E. M. Hopwood, now called "the woman who fed London." Miss Hopwood was secretary to a large commercial firm in the north of England, and her business ability was so well recognized that when the ministry of food was organized, she was called to the service of the government. She scored such success in her emergency warwork that she was appointed at the beginning of the railway strike as food distributing officer for the whole metropolitan area.

Depends on the Result.

"Don't you admire determination in a man's character?"

"That depends, if it brings success I praise it as splendid perseverance, if failure, I denounce it as obstinate obstinacy."—Boston Transcript.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women, who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

Boys Sneak Smokes As Campaign Result

MEDFORD, Jan. 23.—Following the arrest of three high school boys who were fined $5 each for smoking cigarettes, and four 15-year-old boys on the same charge, who were turned over to the juvenile court, not a minor has been found smoking. It is said the boys are sneaking smokes in quiet places until the zeal of Chief of Police Timothy subsides.

The report is going the rounds in Albany, that this law is being openly violated unless it is held in check by the powers that be, the splinters are going to fly in no distant future, and numerous parties involved both going and coming will be called on the carpet to answer why they have tolerated minors violating this law.

Mock Wedding

The grade teachers entertained themselves delightfully on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Inez Kearns. The event of the evening was a mock wedding with Miss Arleigh Kammerer as bride Miss Nellie Young as groom; Miss Prudence Bayley bridesmaid; Miss Beuna Temple best man, Miss Mary Connet ring bearer. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Inez Kearns, while her mother, Mrs. Strum wept bitterly. Rev. Violet Canoles officiating. The wedding march was played by Miss Sasie Fry. The bride's brothers, Miss Vera Merchant and Miss Gertrude Billyeu, recently discharged from the navy were in attendance. Out of town guests were Mrs. Robert Down and Mrs. H. Kearns. The many gifts were useful as well as ornamental. The wedding bouquet was caught by Miss Merchant, who also climbed from the wedding cake.

Newspaper Advertising

The Mightiest Force in the Business World Today

Intelligently used, newspaper advertising is the wonder worker of the day. Its ability to produce results is limited only by the quality of goods, the salesmanship of the firm behind them, and the medium used to describe them.

Firms which are advertising are BUILDING their business—not merely GETTING it—building reputation, character and good will among the buyers of Albany and Linn County.
