C. OF C. BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT

Albany to Step Into Progressive Column with Revival of Old Spirit

The Albany Chamber of Commerce is preparing an elaborate banquet and program at the Albany hotel for tomorrow night to watch every citizen of Albany, regardless of business or professional standing is invited to attend. Several prominent citizens from Eugene and Corvallis Chambers of Commerce are expected to be present with the view of discussing future policies of the mutual development of the resources of the Willamette valley and each of the respective towns represented in particular.

The State Chamber of Commerce and the local organizations in every live town of the state are waking up to the importance of having a business organization to head all public enterprises by encouraging and backing up every worthy cause. Owing to past experiences a few men in each town have no use for an organization of the class of the old commercial club, but the modern chamber of commerce built on a state foundation is a new product in the business and social world and is being backed by the best brains in the state.

Shall Albany be in the progressive class is to be decided tomorrow night. The banquet is 75 cents per plate.

In the early period of the war the bombs used by airplanes weighed 20 pounds, but toward the close of the conflict, the largest weighed a ton and a half.

Household Talks

By Hester Conklin and Pauline Partidge, of the Del Monte Cookery Service.

The One-Dish Dinner

All housewives in these days of top prices are anxious to extend the expensive articles in the menu as far as possible. A delicious meat dish which is a money saver as well, is California Tamale Pie. Besides being economical it is also time and labor saving. It might easily be called a one-dish dinner, for it contains vegetables and corn meal, which takes the place of potatoes.

California Tamale Pie

3-4 cup corn meal, 1-2 pound chopped beef, 3 cups boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 small onion, 1 cup ripe olives, 1 tablespoon chopped green chile pepper, 3 tablespoons tomato catsup, 1 can tomato sauce.

Add the corn meal and salt to the boiling water and boil 5 minutes, then cook in a double boiler for 1 hour and add the olives, stoned and chopped, and the catsup. Chop the onion, add to the beef and cook in a hot frying pan till the red color has entirely disappeared. Mix thoroughly with the tomato sauce. Spread half the corn meal in a greased baking dish, put in the meat mixture and spread the remainder of the corn meal over the top. Bake 45 minutes.

With this a very simple salad may be served, preferably a green salad, such as the recipe given below. This is available at all seasons, and combines particularly well with the Tamale Pie.

Spinach Salad

1 can spinach, 1 Dill or sweet pickle, or 3 tablespoons relish, 1 slice onion, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1-2 teaspoon salt, Red pimento, French dressing.

Drain and chop the spinach. Chop the pickle and onion, mix thoroughly and add to spinach with lemon juice and salt. Chill the mixture thoroughly and serve heaped on a lettuce leaf. Garnish with strips of pimento and pour French dressing over it.

A suitable dessert to complete this menu is Fruit Supreme, which, though simple in preparation, is delicious to the taste and most appealing in appearance.

Fruit Supreme

1 can pineapple, 1 1-2 cups boiling water, 1 envelope gelatin, 1-2 cup sugar, 1-2 cup cold water, 2 oranges.

Soak the gelatin in the cold water, pour on the boiling water, add the sugar and stir till both have dissolved. Cut the pineapple in pieces and add with the juice from the can to the gelatin mixture. Peel and slice the oranges and add. Pour into a serving dish and set aside in a cold place till firm. Serve with whipped cream.

Little Cakes For Tea

Here are two recipes for small fancy cakes which are delicious served with tea in the afternoon, or with light refreshments in the evening. They are easy to make and simple to serve, and are always greeted with delight wherever they appear.

Marmalade Tea Cakes

Mix and sift 1 cup of flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 2 tablespoons of sugar; 1-8 teaspoon of nutmeg and 1-2 teaspoon of salt. Cut in 2 tablespoons of butter with a knife or rub in with the tips of the fingers. Moisten with milk to form a dough and roll out on a floured board to small round cutter and place 1-2 inch apart on a greased pan. Bake 10 minutes. Remove from pan, cool and place two together with orange marmalade spread between. Brush the top lightly with melted butter and dredge with powdered sugar.

Spice Cup Cakes

Mix and sift 1 1-2 cups of flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 3-4 teaspoon each of salt and cinnamon, nutmen and cloves. Chop 1 cup of seedless raisins. Cream 1-3 cup of fat, add 1 cup of brown sugar slowly and next 1 well beaten egg. Alternate the addition of 2-3 cup of milk and dry ingredients. Add the raisins and beat till well mixed. Pour into tiny greased muffin pans and bake 20 minutes.

A CHALMERS

with an Elegant New Body

It is new, will no doubt be widely copied in another year, and expresses elegance. It is "cut" high in the front at the radiator line, and low from the windshield back.

You sit close to the ground; the side line is considerably lower than in any previous Chalmers.

Seats are lower, tilt more; you cling to the seat cushion, and you have abundance of foot room, front and rear.

In detail this new body possesses a completeness, a finality that seems impossible to improve upon.

Underneath the body is the same, unchanged Chalmers chassis that is well nigh faultless.

Hot Spot and Ram's-horn continue in their original and masterly way to get out all the power that nature put into gas, though the complaints against the grade of gas today increase daily.

There's a limit to the supply of the new Chalmers, but there seems to be no limit to the number of those who insist on one.

As a word of warning—see this new Chalmers immediately.
