The most elaborate social affair of the week was the dance given in the Moose hall Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Pollock. The decorations were very beautiful. Oregon grape, pussy willows, scotch-bloom and fern were banked about the windows and stage and every corner of the hall. A canopy hung from the center of the ceiling was simply covered with the greenery, among which tiny electric lights glowed, and over it all were thousands of yellow hearts, all sizes, strung in pairs and made to represent butterflies in a field of flowers on a beautiful mid-summer day. The hundreds of red and green lights and Japanese lanterns above and below the canopy and about the room caused a magnificent scene. A four piece orchestra furnished excellent music. About fifty couples were present. Punch was served during the evening and at a late hour a delicious lunch was served.
