MISFITS --- HIS COLUMN

BY F. P. NUTTING

Timely Comments and Gleanings of News from Here, There and Everywhere by a Former Editor of the Democrat

Lebanon has a business block that has certainly had a varied experience.

It was originally a church, a fact appreciated by a glance at the curved ceiling, then it became a dance hall, skating rink, and movie house, ending up as a Ford garage, in charge of one of Lebanon's liveliest wires.

If there is any vacant store room in a town Mr. Auto Man gets it for his business. It is said to be so every where in the U. S.

Some people have expressed a fear that the garage business is being over done in Albany. A man who recently returned from a California trip, remarked:

"Why bless your heart, Albany hasn't gotten started in the garage business yet. Down in California there are towns no larger than Tangent that have more than Albany." And he swore it to be a fact.

When the Pacific Highway is completed it will need all the garages it has now, and more.

I heard it reported here that the main line of the S. P. is to come from Natron through Lebanon putting this live town on the map more conspicuously than ever.

Among the places the man who travels stops at there is none in Oregon that offers more in the way of appetizing meals, good beds and genial treatment than the Hotel Lebanon. Many make it a special point to get here ahead of time for a longer stay.

The man who climbed down through the skylight of the Sears-Kerr drug store to get some cocaine must have been hungry for the dope. The stunt was an ingenious one. While he took fountain pens what he was really after was cocaine.

Lebanon's Cannery has become established as a permanent, paying institution, well managed.

J. W. McKnight, father of two Judge McKnights, has been at Lebanon for awhile. 87 years of age, he has had a long and interesting experience, in the growth of Oregon. Mr. McKnight was in the early Indian wars as a teamster, doing just as good service as those who were soldiers, but denied a pension because not one.

permitted to continue, he said. Among the measures he advocates in all rural communities with particular attention to training for farm life.

A department of agriculture in cooperation with the farmers and the farm organizations.

"A far larger measure of direct dealing" between producers and consumers of food.

Punishment of food hoarders. Adequate credit to farmers for extension of farming operations.

Ford, Maxwell and Chevrolet owners are getting 10,000, 15,000 and 20,000 miles of wear, in all kinds of service—on passenger cars and trucks—under all kinds of driving conditions.

Nothing can happen to Dayton Airless Tires but w-e-a-r.

Nothing stops them until they are worn clear down to the last pier of rubber. Remember—without punctures or blow-outs. Do you use 30 x 3, 30 x 3½, 31 x 4 tires? If you do, spend your money wisely—buy Dayton Airless. It's true economy.
