ALCAZAR STOCK COMPANY DRAWS

Opening Production is Success; Comedy Billed for Next Week

The first appearance of the Alcazar Stock Company, which will play in Albany each Thursday night, was well received by a partly filled house last evening. "Tess of the Storm Country", the opening production, was well presented and the case collected by Louis B. Christ acquitted itself in splendid fashion.

It is hoped that the people of Albany will support this company sufficiently to warrant continuing their weekly visits to this city, for it offers a diversion from the regular picture program that should be appreciated. The company has been assembled from different parts of the country and care is used in the staging of the productions, special scenery and costumes coming with every play.

The Alcazar company will visit Willamette Valley cities for a few weeks prior to their regular run at Portland where they will take the place of the Alcazar musical comedy stock company now playing.

Miss Mae Whitfield, who took the part of little motherless Tessibel gave a fine interpretation of the juvenile character and G. Richard Frazier made a splendid Frederick Graves, the young minister. Niel McKinnon gave a fine piece of character acting in the role of Ezra Longman, the half-wit and Karal Voss was a mean villain in the part of Ben Letts. The rest of the cast is capable and all handled their parts in professional style.

Next Thursday the offering will be "Nothing But the Truth", the vehicle in which Max Figman starred with success. This is a comedy in three acts and is a riot of fun from the first to last. The admission is made at popular prices and it is expected that a strong friendship will develop in Albany between the public and players on their successive visits.

Went To Portland—

Miss Dena Eagan left for Portland today where she expects to remain for about three months.

Error in Advertisement—

In setting the ad for the McDowell Shoe Company yesterday a part of the copy was printed that should have been left out. On the side of the paper on which the ad was written was a note of instruction about the cuts to use in the ad. In some manner this was set and printed. Mr. McDowell states that he has plenty of high heel pumps with tongues, but that he happened to be out of the cut to illustrate it and asked the Democrat to supply the proper picture.

Flu at Halsey—

Halsey is having its turn with the "flu" and it is reported that there are nearly 200 cases in that part of the county.

Miss Peacock Ill—

Miss Lillian Peacock, one of the popular clerks at Leslie's Confectionery, was taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon and was removed to her home. Heart trouble was thought to be the cause.

Weather Report—

Yesterday the temperature ranged from 47 to 32 degrees. The river stands at 2.6 feet.
