FOREIGNERS BECOME CITIZENS OF MEXICO

FOREIGNERS BECOME 584-5th JUAREZ, Mex.—Eight Japanese, two Chinese, one American and one Turk have formally expressed their desire to become citizens of Mexico by means of applications filed at the city hall here, according to a summary of the municipal activities of Juarez during 1919. The applications were forwarded to Mexico City for attention.

During the same period, 32,579 persons, chiefly Mexican, passed through this port into the United States, the report sets forth. In this connection praise is given by the compiler of the document, Mayor J. Trinidad Romero to the American consulate here for its "considerate attitude toward the (Mexican) authorities and public in general."

On an average, about 10 persons were arrested in Juarez daily during 1919, Mayor Romero's figures showing a total of 3565 for the year. Considerable space is given in the report to the improvement of the police force, one of the innovations being the introduction, now under contemplation, of telephones directly connected with the police station. A police patrol automobile truck was added during the year.

The city's fire departments is still a thing of future. Large fires in Juarez are now handled by the El Paso fire department, while small blazes are extinguished by the use of buckets, tubs and similar methods. The purchase of a $6,000 fire engine is being considered by the municipal authorities.

Many improvements along the lines of drainage, public health, paving, lighting, and education are set forth as being the achievement of the city during the year 1919, in Mayor Romero's reports.

HUSBAND SEEKS TO KEEP CHILD FROM GOING TO HIS WIFE

B. F. Comer, of Portland, was in the city yesterday on his way to Eugene where he is defendant in a suit for divorce filed by his wife. Mr. Comer is fighting for possession of their baby daughter born last July. Mrs. Comer, says the husband, left the home in Portland on December 13 and nothing more was heard from her until papers in the suit were served on him last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Comer were married about 10 years ago when the wife was but 16 years old and they have had more or less trouble for the last seven years, says the husband. Mrs. Comer created a sensation here in September, 1916, when she ran away from home with another man. Her husband followed the couple to Salem and upon the pleadings of the wife to be taken back, she was again taken home. Comer appears to be broken up over the suit, but is going to fight for the possession of the child.

Back at Work—

L. B. Self, manager of the C. J. Brier store is back at work today after an attack of influenza.

Making a Dollar Do a Lot of Work

When there is a dozen places to spend every dollar we earn a fellow has to "watch his step" where and how he spends it.

I just mentioned this because I was thinking of some of the advantages of buying Clothcraft Clothes.

For instance: A man often comes in the store and selects one of these garments and when he finds out the price, he discovers he is going to have money for furnishings goods out of what he expected to pay.

A dollar goes a long way here.
