

RED CROSS FEEDS THOUSANDS DAILY

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 — A cable despatch from Colonel William N. Haskell to the Committee on Relief in the Near East states that soup kitchens at Erivan, Armenian Turkey, now are feeding 20,000 daily. This is in addition to the care of orphanages, hospitals, refuge camps etc. Over 600 sets of clothing are being distributed at Erivan daily. These activities at Erivan are declared to be typical of what is being done throughout Armenia. Colonel Haskell cables that there remains much to be done, and that the situation, as to food, clothing etc., for the orphanages, hospitals and other institutions is being met with limited resources.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

If you live in or near to Albany and have never stood in our reception hall you are nearly as bad as the fellow who visited Cork and missed the Blarney Stone.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

SAW BIRTH OF GREAT MEN

Year 1809 Was Remarkable for the Advent of a Number of Personages Who Won Distinction.

During 1809 occurred the births of more distinguished persons than in any other year of the last century. It is, of course, just possible, though not at all likely, that during one of the last few years of the century there may have been born children whom the future will prove to be as great as those who saw the light in 1809, but all probabilities are against it. It would be truly marvelous should any one of those years have brought into being celebrities whose names shall one day rank with those of the Americans Lincoln, Poe and Holmes; the Englishmen Darwin, Tennyson and Gladstone and the English woman Elizabeth Barrett Browning; the German Mendelssohn and the Pole Chopin. These names stand for achievement in statesmanship, literature, music and science that must remain unparalleled so far as human intelligence can foresee. The eighteenth century had such a year in 1709, which has been called "The Year of Great Babies."

The conditions of unrest, of enfranchisement, the opportunities that came to these notabilities in their youth can hardly be repeated.

To those who believe in the mystic properties of numbers there will be significance in the fact that 1809 belongs a series of significant dates that seem to be connected in some occult way with human liberty. Though we may admit that there is no real significance in the coincidences, it is at least interesting to know how many dates ending with the figure 9 have been notable for marking eras in human freedom.

Beginning with the Christian era, the year 9 saw the first great victory of the Germanic tribes under Hermann, or Arminius, the first rising of that power which was to destroy the Roman empire and make civilization Germanic. The year 29 is the date of the Crucifixion, most significant of all in the history of human liberty.

Good Old Dudeen Coming Back.
History moves in cycles. So the cornucopia pipe. It's coming back to popularity. One finds it on the street, in the workshop, behind the polished doors of the bank directors' rooms. It is an old friend, returning in its old dress.

The reason? Just because, perhaps. Increased—inflated prices of cigars, some charge—have driven thousands of cigar smokers back to the pipe. And pipe smokers know that there is none so sweet as the Missouri meerschaum. It, for decades, has been the fisherman's standby, and the hunter's, and the outdoor man's in general. The briar, the meerschaum and pipes of various clays and woods have their following. But any of these devotees are glad, once in a while, to pick up one of Mark Twain's favorite bowls, load her up to the top and pull for the shore.

The cornucopia pipe is cheap in price, but is worthy a potentate's pocket, when it comes to solid comfort. Watch the cornucopia pipes go by.—Chicago Post.

Easy-Starting Car—No Reduction.
Brown, a North side resident, rented a garage from Green, who also owned a car. In the course of time the two discussed quite freely the various merits of their two cars. Truth to tell, Green's car was a trifle hard to start in the cooler months. But Brown often told Green how easily his car would start when the cool weather came on. "Yes, I never had the least bit of trouble last winter," he said. "Just walked into the garage and stepped on the starter and away she started. My neighbor always had to humor his car with priming it, pouring hot water on the carburetor and everything else."

"Well," said the owner of the garage, "the last man who kept his car in our garage had quite a little trouble in starting in cold weather, and so I made a reduction of $2 a month because the garage was not heated, but I guess it won't be necessary to make that for you!"—Indianapolis News.

Out of Gas.
I was invited to dinner at the house of some friends, where I met a number who were strangers to me. The party was congenial, and I was pleased with my new acquaintances. When we left I volunteered to take several women home in my automobile. We had gone but a short distance when my gasoline supply gave out. At a garage near by I discovered that I did not have the price of a single gallon of gasoline. Returning, I informed the party, regretfully, that the man who had the key to the gasoline pump would not return for an hour, and that, instead of waiting, it probably would be better for them to seek the street cars, which they did.—Exchange.

Picture Gave Him Clue.
Evan D. Roberts of Scranton, Pa., when he was overseas in Uncle Sam's air service, went to a town in England one evening to find the home of his grandmother. Passing by a house he saw through the window his father's picture hanging on the wall, and so found the grandmother whom he had never seen.

The New Look.
"The second-story man is going out of business."
"What do you mean?"
"Since the stocking-up process, he makes now for the cellar."

WARNS NATION OF RED PERIL

U. S. Department of Justice Urges Americans to Guard Against Bolshevism Menace.

CALLS RED PLANS CRIMINAL

Press, Church, Schools, Labor Unions and Civic Bodies Called Upon to Teach True Purpose of Bolshevik Propaganda.

Washington—Calling for the patriotic support of all true Americans in its fight to protect their homes, religion and property from the spreading menace of Bolshevism, the United States Department of Justice has issued a warning against the insidious propaganda of the "Reds" during the new year. It reads:

"It would be extremely helpful to the cause of good government, the maintenance of law and order and the preservation of peace and happiness in our country if the people on this New Year's day would resolve to study, understand and appreciate the so-called 'Red' movement. They can counteract it most effectively by teaching its purpose through the press, the church, the schools, patriotic organizations and labor unions, all of which are within the range of its insidious attacks."

"Red" Theories Criminal.

"The 'Red' movement does not mean an attitude of protest against alleged defects in our present political and economic organization of society. It does not represent the radicalism of progress. It represents a specific doctrine—namely, the introduction of dictatorship by force and violence. It is not a movement of liberty-loving persons, but a distinctly criminal and dishonest movement. Lenin himself made the statement at the Third Soviet Conference, 'Among one hundred so-called Bolsheviks there is one real Bolshevik, thirty-nine criminals and sixty fools.' It advocates the destruction of all ownership in property, the destruction of all religion and belief in God. It is a movement organized against Democracy and in favor of the power of the few built by force. Bolshevism, syndicalism, the Soviet Government, sabotage, etc., are only names for old theories of violence and criminality."

Russian Labor Crushed.

"Though their adherents in this country are advocating and fomenting strikes, Lenin and Trotsky forbid strikes, and trade unions are being broken up and completely subordinated to the will of the few demagogues in control in Russia. This Bolshevik experiment on the living body of the Russian people has not proven in any sense of the word an experiment in Democracy. The Bolshevik leaders frankly repudiate democratic principles as we understand them. It has been a gamble which meant for Russia, and, indeed, for the whole of humanity, enormous losses in lives as well as in material resources. The Bolsheviks have run up a colossal bill which the Russian workmen and peasants will have to pay."

"Reds" Menace America.

"Having lived at the expense of the Russian people for two years, these speculators in human lives and other people's earnings are trying to move to new fields to the east and to the west, hoping to take advantage of the economic distress and confusion of mind in which humanity finds itself after the terrific strain of five years of war."

"Its sympathizers in this country are composed chiefly of criminals, mistaken idealists, social bigots and many unfortunate men and women suffering with varying forms of hypersthesia. They are enemies of the government, of the church and of the home and advocate principles which mean the abolition of all three of these safeguards of civilization."

Would Rob Everybody.

"Twenty million people in this country own Liberty Bonds. These the 'Reds' propose to take away; 9,830,000 people in the United States own farms and 3,838,000 more own homes, which they would forfeit; 11,000,000 old people have savings accounts in savings banks and 18,000,000 people have deposits in our national banks, at which they aim. There are hundreds of thousands of churches and religious institutions, all of which they would abolish. In other words, 110,000,000 hard-working and saving people who own property, love liberty and worship God are asked to abandon all the ideals of religion, liberty and government, which are the outcome of the struggles of their fathers and their own development, and to place themselves, their homes, their family and their religious faith in the keeping and their property under the domination of a small group of Lenins and Trozkys."

Protection Promised.

"This department, as far as existing laws allow, intends during the forthcoming year to keep up an unflinching, persistent, aggressive warfare against any movement, no matter how cloaked or disguised, having for its purpose either the promulgation of these ideas or the excitation of sympathy for those who spread them. The movement will not be permitted to go far enough in this country to disturb our peace and well-being or create any widespread distrust of the people's government. It will fall away before the light of popular knowledge and appreciation of its aims and purposes."

SHRUBS KILLED BY COLD WEATHER IS REPORTED IN VALLEY

Shrubbery of many kinds have sustained a death blow from the cold weather in this valley comes the report from many sources.

The rare bushes of the Albany cemeteries are dead down to the snow line. At Corvallis, many of the campus shrubs have been cut back to the ground.

"The wood of many of the broad leaved evergreens on the campus is killed to the snow line and on some even lower," said Professor Arthur L. Peck, superintendent of the campus in explanation of what seems to some members of the college community as a slaughter of campus plantings.

"Some shrubs appear good, with green leaves on the outside but the branches in back are dead. There are two treatments for such plantings. One is to grub out entirely and replant. The other is cut back to live wood and wait to see if it will grow. This method has been taken in most cases and the plants will be given a show to sprout."
