LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HONORS WERE WITH BARNUM

Fellow Diner Who Thought to Have Joke on Showman Found the Tables Turned.

Turning the joke back on the other fellow was a great stunt for Barnum, the circus king, and recalls an episode of his tour of England.

One day he met a man named Anderson who was a magician and billed himself as "The Wizard of the North."

Anderson lured Barnum to a dinner at which both were strangers, and thinking to have a little fun, introduced Barnum to the assemblage as "The Wizard of the North."

Not the least taken aback, Barnum gracefully acknowledged the introduction, and bowing to the assemblage said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, as you know, 'The Wizard of the North' gives his first show Monday night and as you are now all my friends, I would like to have you accept passes to see the opening performance," and he began writing passes as fast as he could.

Anderson stood it as long as he could, but finally, with visions of having to do his first show to a deadhead audience, he finally weakened and consented.

PERFORMANCE AT GLOBE EXCELLENT

The Alcazar Stock Company Amuses in Farce Comedy Production

"Nothing but the Truth", the performance given by The Alcazar Stock company at the Globe Theatre Thursday evening was an immeasurably superior production to that staged by the same organization at its initial bow here a week ago. Pleasure given the well filled house last evening augurs well for future productions.

The play which was of the farce type comedy was well adapted to the cast of performers. The masculine roles were predominant and excellently rendered. Richard Frazier in the lead portrayed the humorous situations throughout the three acts in a manner that drew every vestige of mirth carried in the lines. Neil McKinnon, Walter Siegfried, Alfred T. Layne and Jack Owenby played their parts well.

Helen Davenport lead in the feminine roles, assisted by Laura Whitfield, Genevieve Berkeley and Daisy D'Avra.

The play dealt with the attempt of a young stock-broker to sell nothing but the truth for 24 hours. A mirth provoking series of situations arose as a result, extremely embarrassing for the young man and likewise amusing to the audience. The young man succeeds in his attempt and wins a $10,000 wager.

Next Thursday the company will appear in a Western play entitled "Under Arizona Skies".
