INTRUDERS TAKE MEERCHAUM PIPE

Merchant at Tangent
Loses Pet Smoking
Utensil

Homer Speer, who conducts a general merchandise store and the post-office at Tangent is bewailing the loss of his pet meerchaum pipe today as the result of the robbery of his store which occurred some time last night.

The marauders entered the building through a window in the rear of the store and in addition to mulcting the owner's pipe, helped themselves to about $9 from the cash drawer, a quantity of knives, some groceries and fruit. It is thought that the work is that of some passing tramps.
