DELAY IN ROAD BILLS CHARGED TO REPUBLICANS

Doughton Accuses Hays of Fostering Tie-up or Roads Program

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Joshua commanded the sun to stand still in order that he might fight the battles of the Lord, and the sun obeyed. Will Hays, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, has commanded this Congress to stand still for the purpose of political expediency, and it has obeyed." This was the assertion made on the floor of the House by Representative Robert L. Doughton, in attacking the failure of the Republican majority to aid the farmer to feed the world by carrying out the rural good roads program initiated by recent Democratic Congresses. Mr. Doughton pointed out the "vital connection between good roads and farming and the still more vital connection between farming and the high cost of living," and denounced a "penny-wise and pound-foolish economy bound to work great injury to the entire country," asserting that "what we need to do is to encourage and stimulate and not discourage those engaged in the most important of all pursuits, that of raising food for our own people and the hungry nations of the world." He pointed out that the Democratic 63rd Congress inaugurated a comprehensive good roads program providing federal aid for states that agreed to stand a proportionate share of construction, and that the last Congress, also Democratic, had increased the total to the extent of $275,000,000 being available during the period of 1917-21. By contrast he asserted that the present Republican Congress has done nothing, and in addition has held up a bill directing the War Department to turn over to the highway authorities of the various states road making materials, machinery, etc.
