

For the Out-of-Doors Days—

KODAK

And not merely the alluring picture story, but on every negative at least a date; and a title, too, if you like. Titling is the work of but an instant with an Autographic Kodak; is as simple as making the picture itself—and there is no extra charge for Autographic film.

If it isn't an Eastman, it isn't a Kodak

FRED DAWSON

The Rexall Store

LOCAL BRIEFS

Personal Mention of People and Activities About the City.

Expected Home—

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, who have been visiting at various parts of California for several weeks, are expected home this evening.

From Sweet Home—

O. H. Russell, ex-county commissioner from Sweet Home, was an Albany business visitor yesterday afternoon.

From Brownsville—

A. J. Kirk, of the Brownsville flour mill, transacted business here yesterday. Mr. Kirk reports business good in his line.

From Corvallis—

Dr. D. V. Poling, of Corvallis, acting pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, was a visitor here last night and today, to confer with a committee of the officials of his church.

Harrisburg Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Chastine, of Harrisburg, were in this city last night on their return from a several months visit at the home of their son in Wallawa county.

Leaves For New Jersey—

Miss Agnes Kirshen, of Newark New Jersey, who has been visiting her uncle and family of this city, J. F. Kennedy, left for her home this morning.

Visits Father—

Miss Alice Birdwell, of Cottage Grove, was an Albany visitor today on her return from Lebanon, where she had been to visit her father, J. W. Birdwell.

Business Visitors—

T. S. Ettinger, of Mill City, and S. C. Parker, of Seio, were Albany business visitors last night and today.

Visits Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, of Salem

are in the city visiting. Mr. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ward.

From Corvallis—

W. L. Kadderly, of Corvallis, was in this city last night and today looking after business matters.

Monroe Visitor—

Mrs. S. Greybeck, of Monroe, was the guest of Albany friends today.

From Newport—

S. L. Irvine, of Newport, a well known citizen of Albany, was a visitor here last night and today.

Returned Home—

Albert Harnisch, an Albany high school student, returned to his home near Dever this morning.

Went to Salem—

C. C. Hall, of the Santiam Forest reserve, made a business trip to Salem this morning. Mr. Hall predicts that the snow of the mountains will be out much sooner this year than common.

Went To Portland—

William Pollack, left for Portland this morning, to look after business interests.

On Official Business—

J. R. Penland, left on the early train today for Salem, on official business.

From Verdure—

Everett Young, a farmer of the Verdure district, was an Albany business visitor today.

From Marshfield—

Walter Aspland, of Marshfield, of Marshfield, was an Albany business visitor last night registering at the Albany.

Boys New Buss—

W. R. Westbrook, of the Albany hotel, has purchased a new hotel buss in Portland and will have the same on the pike in a few days.

Supply of Logs—

The freight train, from the bay was loaded to limit again yesterday with another supply of spruce logs that had been cut by the government for war purposes.

Visiting Here—

J. W. Boyle, a former Indian scout, who resides in eastern Oregon is visiting old time friends here this week. Mrs. Boyles is visiting at Brownsville her former home.

Ships Car Load of Cattle—

F. H. Preiffer, went to Portland yesterday, with a car load of fat cattle he is selling in the Portland market.

Attend Funeral—

A delegation, of Maccabees, attended the funeral of the late Geo. A. Asche at Millersburg cemetery Wednesday, of this week. Mr. Asche was a prominent member of the order of this city.

Boys Fat Cattle—

C. E. Smith, of Smith meat market on second street, bought a car load of fine short horn stall fed beef cattle from R. J. Fisher of the Tangent road yesterday. Mr. Smith says they are the best he has bought and will use them to supply his market here instead of sending them to Portland.

Influenza Ban Lifted—

The influenza ban which has been in effect at the Agricultural college at Corvallis for some time has been removed.

From Peoria—

Mrs. Geo. Bayne, of Peoria, was in this city today to visit her son who is attending the Albany high school.

From Jefferson—

Miss Flora Vaughn, of Jefferson, was an Albany shopper today, returning on the noon train to her home.

See Nebergall's Ad today. m12

Save money. Read Nebergall's ad. m12

Visits in Portland—

Mrs. E. S. Devine, of Lebanon, was a visitor here today on her way to Portland to visit friends.

Here From Eugene—

Rev. W. J. Large, of Eugene arrived in this city today noon, in the interest of his work. Rev. Large is superintendent of the American Sunday school work in this part of the state.

From Tangent—

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Slate, of Tangent, were in this city today on a trip to points north.

Visits Brother—

Fred Lyons, went to Knox Butte this afternoon to visit his brother, Frank who is reported quite ill.

On Business—

A. M. Bond, an old timer of this city, arrived here today on a business trip and to visit friends. Mr. Bond is thinking of locating here if he can find what he wants.

From Millersburg—

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farlow, well known farmers from the Millersburg neighborhood, were shoppers here today.

At Shelburn—

County clerk R. M. Russell, went to Shelburn yesterday, having been called there on account of the illness of Mrs. Russell, who is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jones.

Excursion Postponed—

Cut the prices of living. Read Nebergall's ad today. m12

From Jefferson—

Mrs. J. M. Curl, a well known lady of Jefferson, was an Albany visitor today. Mrs. Curl is a former resident of this county.

Leaves for Dayton—

A. P. Heup, of the Hoftich Electric Shop, will leave tomorrow for Dayton, Ohio, where he will take a two weeks educational course in Delco Light and power plants in the factories of the Dayton Engineering Company. He will be gone about four weeks.

Left for Eugene—

Miss Marjory Holman a student at the University of Oregon, returned last evening after stopping here for a visit with Miss Irene Barrett on her way back from a visit at the home of her parents in Dallas.

From Plainview—

Isaac Whealdon, a well known pioneer citizen of Plainview, transacted business here today.

From Kings Valley—

Link Allen and daughter, of Kings Valley, were visitors here today. Mr. Allen is a successful farmer of his community.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends for the kindness and great help given us in the sad loss of our loving son and brother. Also for the many beautiful flowers given to his memory.

MR. and MRS. S. G. SIMON and FAMILY. 72

Mill Run Feed—

Red Crown Mill run $43 a ton. Ton price given on 5 sacks or more. Other feeds in proportion. Red Crown Mills. m10tf.

Special Convocation of Temple commandry, Friday evening, March 12. Work in Temple Degree.

C. H. CUSICK, E. C. 11m12

FARCE COMEDY RIOT OF FUN

An evening of fun and merriment was given those attending the performance of "Oh, You Baby", the offering of the "Alcazar Stock Company" at the Globe Theatre last night. The "Alcazar Stock Company" are very much at home in the farce comedies as they are in dramas. "Oh, You Baby" is of that class of comedy that keeps one in good humor for an entire evening and never since the days of the old reliable, "Charley's Aunt" has a farce comedy made such a hit as "Oh, You Baby". Mr. Alf T. Layne was assigned to the chief comedy role that of an old Doctor who claimed to have discovered how to bring the old back to youth again. Layne kept his audience in a good humor the entire evening.

The excursion of the ladies of Albany to Portland under the management of Mrs. Humphreys has been postponed on account of so many being ill.

Saturday Special

—Sale of—

BUCILLA YARN

The assortment is complete, and you will always be able to find the items needed to supply the seasons demands in our yarn department.

All articles are of high standard quality.

The SHETLAND FLOSS in the following colors, Turquoise, Yellow, China Green, Blue, Emerald Green, Shadow Lawn.

GERMAN TOWN in Purple, Navy, Peacock Blue, Champagne, Yellow, Shadow Lawn, Hunters Green, Rose, Geranium, Cream, Water Green, White, Orange and Black.

KNITTING WORSTED in Peacock Blue, Navy, Purple, Pea Green, Orange, and Shadow Lawn.

Remember this SPECIAL is for SATURDAY ONLY at per Ball

25c

WORTH'S Dep't STORE

THE QUALITY STORE
New Wallace Bldg. Phone 80 Albany, Oregon

March 13

March 13

Saturday Specials

You all know that it is a real Special when Nebergall Says "Special"

We again offer you a chance to buy your Sunday Meat at a real bargain.

BEEF ROASTS, Choice @ 17½c Per lb.

BEEF BOILS, CHOICE @ 15c Per lb.

BEEF STEAKS, Choice @ 25c Per lb.

Pork Neck & Back Bones @ 3 lbs. for 25c

Small Pork Shoulder, Whole @ 24c Per lb.

Shoulder Pork, Roasts @ 27c Per lb.

Pork Liver @ 7c Per lb.

Good Fresh Salmon, Just caught @ 30c Per lb.

The Smelt season is just about over. Come in and see us about your Smelt for Canning.

"MEAT" ME AT

NEBERGALL'S

2ND & LYON ST.
The Quality Butcher Shop

MALLORY

Spring Hats For Men

What is your particular style and color? Perhaps you wore a brown or gray hat last time, but you don't want the same thing over again, for if you did Neighbor Smith wouldn't know you had a new hat. We have all the shades of green, as well as pearl, and different styles of solid black, so you can have a change this season.

The hat is an important part of a man's dress, and we have observed that men like to buy their spring hats early; so we have always bought our hats for early shipment, and we are now ready to show you a full line of new styles at comfortable prices.

"Value First"

is our slogan and that is the reason we are offering you Mallory Hats.

The Blain Clothing Co.

Value First

MEAT

Prime, fresh stock, bought especially to please your palate. That's the kind of meat we sell and that is the reason for our growing list of customers.

FOR SUNDAY DINNER

A Nice, Choice Roast of Beef, Veal or Pork, Or a Cut of Salmon or Halibut.

For Breakfast—

Lamb or Veal Chops or Smelt.

Special—

Eastern Oysters, New York Selects

Extra Fancy, Per Pint 65c

Also Olympia Oysters. — Fresh Crabs

E. C. SMITH MEAT COMPANY

210 West 2nd St.