RECENT SPELL OF LETHARGY DISAPPEARS

Albany society is slowly emerging from her recent spell of lethargy; the past weeks have been very quiet ones making the social calendar take its place in the back ground. Even Master Cupid has been in hiding, but this week he came forth and promised at least two weddings to take place within the next two weeks. We hope he didn't see his shadow, and go into retreat for six week again. The devotees of dancing will be glad to learn that the club committees have held meetings this week, and the popular amusement will start with full sway. The clubs are again meeting, and we find a few dinners chronicled on the week's social calendar.
