P.—The Chicago National League baseball team, otherwise known as the "Cubs" swung bats in the first game of its spring exhibition schedule March 11 with a team of Pasadena business men as opponents. The following day the Cubs began a three day series of games with the Vernon team of the Pacific Coast League at Los Angeles.

The Portland team of the Coast League will play the Cubs at Ontario, Cal., March 16. The Chicagoans will then return to Los Angeles and play a series with the coast league team of that city on March 19, 20 and 21. Another three-day series will be played with the Seattle Coast leaguers at Hanford, Cal. March 22, 23 and 24.

Returning to Los Angeles March 25 the Cubs will play Vernon on that date, Los Angeles March 26, Vernon March 27 and Los Angeles March 28. The team will then jump to San Francisco, play the coast league team of that city March 30 and 31, and the Oakland coast league team at Oakland, April 1. Games will be played at San Francisco April 2 and 3 and on April 4 the Cubs will play at Oakland in the morning and San Francisco in the afternoon.

The team will then jump to Phoenix, Arizona, and play a picked team on April 6. The next stop will be Kansas City where a three day series will be played with the American Association team of that place. On April 12 the Bloomington, Ill., team of the Central League will be the Cubs' opponents at Bloomington.

The Cubs are due to arrive in Cincinnati April 13 and open the National League season there the following day.

Varsity Team Promising
SPOKANE, Wash., Mar. 15.—Five lettermen are in prospect for the varsity baseball team at Gonzaga university this spring and promising new material also is in sight, according to Rev. Daniel J. Reidy, S. J., director of athletics at the local school. First call for baseball practice was issued this week, with a good turnout.

Schedule is Announced
WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE Pullman, March 14.—(Special.)—J. Fred Bohler, athletic director, yesterday announced a 25-game schedule for the Cougar baseball nine. The schedule includes 20 collegiate contests and a series of games with Cliff Blankenship's Spokane Indian squad, which will spend a week in training on Rogers field. The schedule as announced includes a trip to Montana and a week's jaunt to the coast.

The week of April 19-25 will find the Oregon Aggies and the University of Oregon on the local diamond for the opening games of the collegiate schedule. On May 2 and 3 the Cougars will cross bats with the Oregon Aggies and will meet the University of Oregon nine on the two succeeding days in return games, and then journey to Seattle to meet the Sun Dodgers. The following week the team will play the University of Montana in a three-game series at Missoula. Whitman and Idaho will be played a series of games, the dates for which have not yet been announced.

Question Goes to Polls
ROSEBURG, Or., March 17.—A second attempt of American Legion men to secure appointment of a boxing commission by the city council was made here Monday night. The committee to whom the matter was referred reported that in their opinion it should be submitted to a vote of the citizens at the May election. The city council voted to accept the report.

Opposition of the W. C. T. U. and the church people of the city to appointment of a boxing commission has been marked since the matter was first suggested by the legion men, it being claimed that the sport
