STAR CHARMING IN LOVELY FILM

Never has beautiful Alice Joyce appeared in a film that was more adapted to her charming ability than "The Spark Divine" in which she is presented at the Rolfe tonight. An admirable cast supports Miss Joyce and the story portrayed in the picture is one that has a vivid emotional interest.

Cold and indifferent because of a childhood of neglect from her wealthy parents, Miss Joyce as the heroine gives a realistic picture of the awakening of the spirit of love and charity through the novel ruse which her husband adopts to bring her out of her unnatural hatred of affection or emotion.

some time has been suggested as the basis for a possible film which might be titled "The Phantom Organist". Despite locked doors and vigilant watch the management of the Rolfe Theatre has been unable to bar the mysterious musician, who selects the stillly quiet of the early morning for his concert and the Rolfe organ for his instrument.

"ARE YOU AN ELK" A GENUINE COMEDY

Nothing of a comedy nature has been presented here this season more genuinely humorous than the delightful farce comedy "Are You an Elk", which is at the Globe tonight. Its record is international, for besides having been presented in London and Paris, it played an entire season in New York, six months in Chicago and six months in Boston. The theme of the play is unlimited in fun making opportunities and through its reference of Elk doings, it fairly bubbles over with humorous situations, which keeps the audience in a constant roar of laughter. It has been proven so far, that the best liked plays presented by the "Alcazar Stock Co." have been those of the comedy nature and it is only natural to give those wishing to see the plays that which they

MOOSE DANCING PARTY TONIGHT

An invitation dance will be given tonight at the Moose hall. An entertaining time is promised to all who attend the event. Popularity of the dances is well known.

Miss Albany Let Us Introduce You To Miss Manhattan

She's a distinctly smart young lady — youthful and spirited — with an air of good taste about her whole costume.

Sometimes she calls on you in a trim suit, modishly displaying the season's newest silhouette, sometimes she makes her debut in a smart, useful-looking top coat distinctly swagger: Whichever it may be, it's always new, and well tailored from excellent materials.

Let us introduce you to Miss Manhattan the next time you come to our store.
