

Senate Defeats Peace Treaty on Final Vote

Treaty is Rejected in Vote Coming Late This Afternoon After long Session of Debates on Reservations.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—The peace treaty was defeated in the senate late today on the final vote which came after a modified reservation preamble worked out by the bi-partisan conference had been adopted under which affirmative acceptance of reservations by other powers would not be required.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—"Strong remonstrances" have been made by the American government against the rulings of the Allied reparations committee that under the peace treaty the sale of certain German property can be forced in neutral countries to satisfy the initial payment of the German war indemnity. A further protest is said to be in preparation according to a letter from under secretary of state Polk to Senator Henderson of Nevada.

SPOKANE JAILER CHOKED TO DEATH

William Nelson Found Dead in Jail Hallway

SPOKANE, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—William B. Nelson, city jailer was brutally killed today in the corridors of the jail by an unknown assailant who choked him to death. His body was found by deputy jailers some time after Nelson had been killed.

Police say that Steve Potasky, arrested yesterday as an insanity suspect was the only prisoner outside of the cells at the time. They believe that he is Nelson's slayer.

STORMS ABATE IN THE EAST

DENVER Colo., Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—Normal conditions are reported in the Eastern rocky mountain region following the worst storm in 19 years which yesterday crippled wire and train communication destroying thousands of dollars worth of property and causing the loss of at least four lives.

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—High winds continued over the greater part of Kansas, according to reports and have caused considerable damage to the growing wheat crop.

New Classified

FOR RENT—Rooming house which will require a $2500 investment. Can clear $3000 per year. F. H. Pfeiffer, West Fifth St. 82

FOR SALE—Fine farm of 170 acres, 150 acres in cultivation, 20 acres in pasture with a little timber, very good improvements, situated 7 miles from Albany, this is a fine producing farm and is a bargain. Price $110 per acre. Satisfactory terms can be given. See J. V. Pipe, Albany State Bank Bldg. I also have some excellent bargains in Albany residence property. Situated in close and on paved streets. See J. V. Pipe, Albany State Bank Bldg. 82

FOR SALE—1918 Chevrolet touring car. In good condition. See Lewelling Motor Co., Albany, Oregon, 424 West 1st Street. 82

FOR SALE—137 1/2 acres crop, stock, household furniture, horses and cattle, 120 acres in crop, close to good town at $100 per acre. No. 2, 120 acres close to good town at $75 per acre, good terms. No. 5, 100 acres good buildings, 70 acres cleared balance pastured, $80 per acre, terms to suit purchaser. No. 4, 8 1/2 acre tract, within one mile of postoffice, good buildings, highly improved for sale cheap for quick sale. Several good houses, modern in every particular.—George Taylor, Cor. 2nd and Broadalbin Sts. 82

W. R. Scott, manager of the Albany cannery, reports that a big supply of modern machinery is being installed and that preparations are being made to place the cannery in a position to handle a much larger output of fruits and vegetables during the coming season.

A continuous cooker, of the most modern design, is one of the important improvements being made. The building is being painted on the inside and will be painted on the outside as soon as the weather will permit.

Manager Scott is in the country much of the time and finds a growing sentiment in most every section of the country in favor of the growing of small fruits for canning purposes. He is now registering men and women who will assist in the cannery this season, which will probably open about the first of May.

Occupants of the First National bank building peered wildly out of their offices this morning as the corridors of the building echoed and re-echoed with the sound of dual harangue between a Chinese Bolshevik and a Mexican outlaw. Inflection of the voices augured anything from a German bomb to a nihilist outbreak.

Gradually as the sounds diminished in violence the affrighted office holders ventured from their rooms and tracing their location witnessed the closing of an animated debate between Big Chief "Johnnie" Catlin and

SPACE AND TIME ARE ANNIBILATED BY THE DEMOCRAT'S SERVICE

The Democrat calls its readers attention to the telegraph picture which appears on this page. It shows De Valera and Mayor Hylan as they stood reviewing the St. Patrick's day parade Wednesday afternoon in New York City, less than 48 hours ago. The photograph appears here at least two days before it will be shown in any of the Portland papers.

SHANTUNG ISSUE WILL BE SOLVED

AN Early Decision on Dispute in View

TOKIO, Mar. 19, By Associated Press—It is understood here that the government has instructed Yunkichi Ohata, the Japanese minister to Peking to begin negotiations immediately as the views of the commissioner appointed to investigate the issue had been reached.

The despatch indicates that both the Chinese and Japanese commissioners had concurred over the principal questions involved in the negotiations. It is apparent from their reports that an early settlement can be made. The message indicates that the Japanese have granted large concessions which have been demanded by the Chinese before they would ratify the peace treaty and seems to indicate that an amicable settlement can be made to the whole affair.

NAVY RECRUITS ARE SOUGHT IN CAMPAIGN HERE

W. S. Corder Arrives Here for Local Drive

Recruiting party in charge of Walter T. Corder, chief pharmacist's mate, from the Naval recruiting station in Portland arrived in Albany today to open a local campaign for additions to "Uncle Sam's navy". Headquarters of the party will be at the St. Francis hotel.

"There are 55 different trades open to a man enlisting in the navy at the present time," said Corder today. "Recruits, if they wish will be immediately sent to a school where they can master a profession taught under the direction of the most skilled experts in the world, so said.

As a special feature to the campaign a film has been brought here showing the wonders of Brazil as taken from the United States battleship Idaho as she was escorting the President of Brazil to his home after a visit to the United States last summer and which will be shown at the local theatres.

CANNERY ADDS NEW EQUIPMENT

Plant is Ready For The Coming Season

W. R. Scott, manager of the Albany cannery, reports that a big supply of modern machinery is being installed and that preparations are being made to place the cannery in a position to handle a much larger output of fruits and vegetables during the coming season.

A continuous cooker, of the most modern design, is one of the important improvements being made. The building is being painted on the inside and will be painted on the outside as soon as the weather will permit.

Manager Scott is in the country much of the time and finds a growing sentiment in most every section of the country in favor of the growing of small fruits for canning purposes. He is now registering men and women who will assist in the cannery this season, which will probably open about the first of May.

BONUS AND LOAN MEASURES TO BE BACKED BY STATE EX-SERVICE MEN

Instructions Wired to Representative at National Convention to Fight for Either Form of Relief.

FIX CONVENTION SITE

Astoria Will be Scene of State Conference of Legion for Three Days Beginning July 30 Ending Aug. 1.

When the delegates of The American Legion meet at the special national session in Indianapolis March 22, to consider measures to be taken to secure additional compensation for the ex-service men of the nation, J. A. Covill, representing Oregon will declare in favor of either of two forms of relief a flat "bonus" or a bill to loan money for the purchase of homes or farms.

Decision to back either one of these two measures was arrived at yesterday in Portland at the meeting of the state executive committee of The American Legion, according to Dr. G. A. Riggs who returned to Albany this morning following the session. Instructions were wired to Covill who is already speeding east to the convention which opens next Monday.

The state committee also selected Astoria as the place for the three day session of the state convention of The American Legion beginning July 30 and continuing through August 1. The

(Continued on Page 8)

CASCADIA DUE FOR BIG BOOM

Resident of Springs Reports New Hotel Planned and Other Buildings

A modern hotel building, a sash and door factory and a new and up to the minute sanitarium are a few of the latest developments in the building line in store for the residents of Cascadia, according to the statement made today by George W. Geisendorffer.

Geisendorffer was in Albany this morning to attend the funeral service of his late brother-in-law, Frank Lines of Knox Butte. He is enthusiastic over the future of Cascadia as a resort. He says that the only thing lacking to make the springs a mecca for tourists is a good motor road.

The proposed construction which he says will begin there in the near future is by outside capital. A Portland capitalist is to construct the hotel and a physician also from Portland to build the sanitarium. Geisendorffer avers that Cascadia will become a great winter resort as well as a summer place for visitors.

THE ANCIENT CARVED HIS MESSAGE IN STONE

The Roman Crier hawled to the many the needs of the few. The Herald of the Middle Ages likewise did proclaim with leathern lungs his master's will, wares, wants and losses. But the Modern Man puts an Ad in the Democrat Classified Columns!

EAMOND VALERA AND MAYOR REVIEWING MARCH 17 PARADE

NEW YORK CITY, Mar. 17.—Eamonn DeValera, President of the Irish Republic and Mayor Hylan here shown in this telegraphed picture reviewing a St. Patrick's day parade of 25,000 persons representing the spirit of a "Free Ireland" to the strains of old Irish melodies. The procession marched up Fifth Avenue past St. Patrick's Cathedral. The famous 165th regiment was there together with 1,000 persons from India with banners saying "Free India". This was one of the greatest Sons of Erin parades ever seen in New York. It took 3 hours for the line to pass a given point.

CHAOS STILL REIGNS IN BERLIN DESPITE DEPARTURE OF KAPP AND REVOLUTIONARY FORCES

TROOPS LEAVING CITY TURN ON THE JEERING CROWDS AND OPEN FIRE, KILLING MANY AND WOUNDING HUNDREDS; LOYAL EBERT SOLDIERS PATROL THOROUGHFARES OF THE CITY; SITUATION STILL SERIOUS.

BERLIN, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—Chaos reigns in Berlin following the departure of Chancellor Kapp and his forces yesterday. The rear guard of the revolutionary forces turned upon the jeering crowds as they marched out of the city and opened a destructive fire into their midst. Many were killed outright and hundreds wounded.

Berlin still is under bayonet rule but the troops patrolling the streets are all forces who have remained loyal of the Ebert government. No organized attacks upon the capitol have been made yet by the radical elements but economic conditions are described as extremely serious.

Noske, minister of defense is engaged in bringing about order and restoring activities. Troops are tearing down the barbed wire entanglements and barricades which the revolutionary forces erected. The coalition parties must construct a new cabinet. There are diverging reports concerning amnesty for the rebels and this matter promises stormy scenes in the capitol. Many favor severe punishment for Kapp and his associates.

A bitter manifesto has been issued by the independent committee attacking Noske and his adherents. It

STORMS RAGING IN TWIN CITIES

ST. PAUL, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—The storm which in intensity equals any experienced this winter still prevails all through Southern Minnesota, South Dakota and Northern Iowa. In Northern Wisconsin reports have been received that lower lines and electric light wires are all down. Telegraph and telephone service between the twin cities is irregular and intermittent.

Chinook Jargon Conflab in Justice Court Is Mistaken for Russian Nihilist Uprising

Little Chief Louis Fuller of the Sitka Indian reservation. Fuller was accused before Justice Olliver of purloining two bed sheets and 4 pillow slips from the St. Charles hotel by J. W. Newman, the proprietor. The conversation before the court between Chief Catlin and the accused which is said to have been in pure "unexpurgated" Chinook dialect was simply Fuller's explanation of how the goods were carried away by the "squaws" of his party. A $25 fine concluded the conversation.

BERLIN ON VERGE OF EXPLOSION AT PRESENT TIME IS REPORT RECEIVED

City Likened to "Barrel of Gunpowder, Liable to Ignite at any Time" is Despatch Received.

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED

Reports from Mining Districts of Germany Indicate Much Bloodshed Between Troops and Miners.

LONDON, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—All Germany is rebellious with the exception of the Southern states, and Berlin is a "barrel of gunpowder" which may be "ignited at any time," says a despatch from Berlin which has been received here by the Exchange telegraph company.

Hundreds of persons have been killed in the mining districts of Germany in collisions between the miners and troops according to German reports which have been received at Copenhagen.

A bomb exploded outside of the British embassy in Berlin last night as the naval division was marching past, so a despatch from Berlin says. There were several persons killed but no material damage done to the embassy. It is not reported who exploded the missile.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of General Von Ludendorff and Colonel Bauern characterized as Ludendorff's right hand man says a despatch from the Demokraten in Berlin.

There is every evidence that strong guard has been placed by the Dutch government over the former Kaiser. Police it is said have been detailed to follow him wherever he goes. The guard has been instructed not to let the ex-emperor get out of their sight and to remain but a few steps in his rear as he goes about the garden of Bentinck castle.

RESERVATION FOR IRELAND ADOPTED

Senate Favors Measure Giving Irish Home Rule by Vote of 38 to 36

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—Proceeding under forced draft to reach a final vote on ratification of the peace treaty the senate put into the republican reservation column a declaration of sympathy for the self-government of Ireland.

Vote on the measure which was proposed by Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, a democrat, was in favor of the resolution with a by majority of two. Twenty-one democrats voted in favor of it along with 17 republicans. There were 36 opposed to it.

Senator Lodge bitterly attacked the reservation claiming that it was "politics". Senator McNary of Oregon cast his ballot for the measure.

The text of the Irish reservation is as follows: "In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice adopted by the senate June 6, 1919, and declares that when self-government is attained by Ireland, a consummation it is hoped is at hand, it should promptly be admitted as a member of the league of nations."

REPORT APPROVES CABINET CHOICE

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—By Associated Press—The nomination of Bainbridge Colby to be secretary of state was favorably reported by the senate foreign relations committee today without a record of the vote taken.