KOLCHAK TROOPS DESERT TO REDS

NEW YORK By A. P.—How an army of 80,000 Kolchak troops "melted away" by desertion to the Bolsheviks, following a speech made to prisoners of war by Leon Trotsky, in Omak, Siberia, two days after that city's evacuation by the All-Russian forces, was told here today by Major General I. Thord-Gray, a former officer of the British, Canadian and All-Russian armies just returned from Vladivostok.

Trotsky, he said, addressing the prisoners as "comrades," said they would be welcomed by the red army if they cared to join. Captive officers, he said, who wanted to return to Kolchak would be given safe escort and 2,000 rubles each. A number of the prisoners accepted the offer and, returning to their own lines, told what Trotsky had done. Within two weeks, General Thord-Gray said, Kolchak had practically no army and a few months later was executed.

COOS BAY HAS SNOW FLURRIES

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 26.—Snow flurries prevailed on Coos bay during the fore part of the day, but it did not last long, melting almost as fast as it fell. This is the first snow storm of the winter, although there had been much colder weather. It is reported the mountains received a heavier fall and snow can be seen on several ranges back from the bay.

BOY DROWNS IN COQUILLE RIVER

BANDON, Or., March 25.—D. A. Davis, 19 years old, employed as a deck hand on the steamer Dispatch was drowned in the Coquille river this morning. He was loading cans of milk onto the boat at Walstrom landing when he fell overboard.

He made no outcry and was not missed by his fellow workmen until he had floated 100 feet down stream when one of the men saw him go down. His parents reside at Denver, Colo. He was formerly a member of the Bandon Coast Guard. The body has not been recovered.

"Does the Senator mean to accuse General Wood of being implicated in a conspiracy to corrupt the American electorate?" asked Senator Moses. "I do say that the men who are managing the Woods campaign propose to control the Republican convention by the use of money," replied Senator Borah, "and I waive my senatorial privilege when I say that, now let them go to the bat if they want to."
