

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

BABY PARTY IS UNIQUE EVENT OF THE WEEK

A very pretty little affair of the week was the birthday party given by Mrs. George Earl Fortmiller at her home on fifth street to celebrate the first anniversary of the birth of her little son George Earl, Jr. Preceding the light luncheon a basket of favors was passed, each little guest receiving a dainty doll and a candy cupid. The birthday cake was white and held one candle in evidence of Master eGeorge Earl's first birthday. The children present with their respective mothers, were: Julianne Fortmiller, Jean Merrill, Dorris Anne Neeley, Betty Jean Norman, Joanne Rousseau, Jean Anne Shortridge, Mary Prichard, Billie Ralston, Gordon Riggs, Gardner Ewing and George Earl Fortmiller. The ladies present were Mrs. William Fortmiller and Mrs. Woodward, grandmothers of George Earl, Jr., his aunt Mrs. Ralph Cronise, and Miss Flora Mason.

OLD FASHIONED QUILTING BEE GIVEN

Mrs. Louis Dowling was a hostess of the week when she entertained about twelve of her ladies friends at a quilting-bee Tuesday afternoon. Her home was made bright and pretty with quantities of lilies and carnations nicely arranged. Following the afternoon work Mrs. Dowling served a bounteous dinner to her guests, covers were laid for twelve around a prettily appointed table which centered with the white and pink flowers in keeping with the colors throughout the rooms.

MACCABEES ADD NEW MEMBERS

The Lady Maccabees met in their hall Wednesday evening to combine business and pleasure. They balloted on several candidates, and the usual business was attended to. The remainder of the evening was enjoyed socially. Vocal and instrumental music being the diversion, after which an elaborate luncheon was served. The committee for refreshments was Mrs. Albers, Mrs. A. Austin, Mrs. Laura Anderson, Miss Hannah Anderson, Miss Grace Anderson and Mrs. Bertha Aldrich.

OPERETTA PRETTY AFFAIR

The Operetta, "The Merry Milkmaids", given by the students of Albany College, under the direction of Miss Lenhart and Miss Clement of the conservatory, Wednesday evening was a decided success. The Methodist church was well filled with an appreciative audience. Following is the cast and their respective parts: Dairy Queen, Mrs. Thomas Gilchrist; "The Heroine" Dorothy, Stella Dorgan; "Mother Monica", Indian fortune teller, Miss Anna Nielson; "Farmer Jim", Mr. R. W. McNeil; "Farmer Joe" Mr. Melvin Olene; "The Dutch Dr." Dan Lawrence; The maids who sang were Ireen Yantias, Margaret Shornberg, and Gertrude Braden; "The Commodore", Kenneth Diven.

The church was very pretty for the occasion, the stage was an outdoor scene with the dairy maids house to the left, and the rear banked with large ferns and other pretty scenery. The end of the Operetta had to answer to a recall by the audience. The proceeds will be used to buy a victrola for the conservatory.

Of Interest To Women

The Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs will celebrate its silver jubilee in 1921.

Women are now admitted to the engineering courses of the principal English universities.

Belgian women as a class are noted for their tidiness in dress and their indifference in cheap finery.

A minimum wage of $16.50 per week has been fixed for women employed in restaurants and lunch rooms in Washington, D. C.

Kansas's first woman notary public was Miss Carrie Short, of McPherson, who was commissioned by the governor in 1885.

In the middle ages noble Italian women filled the chairs of law, mathematics and philosophy in some of the principal universities.

Something like ten thousand dollars a year, it is said, is appropriated to buy novels for the ladies of the Turkish Sultan's household.

Among the prized possessions of all portugese women of the peasant class are pendants and chains of the finest gold, which are handed down from generation to generation.

Every war has produced its heroes as well as its heroines. Notable among the heroines of the Russo-Japanese war was Miss Ando Yoshi, a young Japanese seller of rice cakes at Paris; Arthur, who stole the Russian war maps, disguised herself as a coolie, and carried them safely to the Japanese consul at Peking.

With the final adoption of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, 26,883,566 women become eligible to vote in all elections. Seventeen million were already entitled to vote for President under State laws, and 7,000,000 were entitled to vote for members of Congress under State laws. When a young woman was stopped recently from smoking in the restaurant of the United States Senate in Washington she took her cause to the highest authorities. In this case the senators themselves, with the result that in future a woman will be permitted to enjoy her cigarette in the Senate restaurant if she so desires.

Discussion of ways and means to curb the present wild orgie of money-spending has served to recall the action of the late Queen Louisa of Denmark, who, determined to put a stop to female extravagance, drove through the streets of Copenhagen in a calico dress. Miss Agnes M. Olesen of Chicago and Mrs. W. H. Jobe of Detroit are two experts in the lumber industry who have been much in demand as speakers on home building at the lumberman's conventions this Winter.
