

AMUSEMENTS

TODAY'S SPORTS

Betty Compson and Thomas Meighan, leaders of the underworld in New York's Chinatown, who are transformed by contact with the patriarch in "The Miracle Man", George Loane Tucker's astounding film production which comes to the Globe Theatre in Albany Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. In connection with this picture, it has been said of the acting of these two stars that, "no greater praise could be bestowed than to say that they achieved a reality in scenes that might have been revolting or ludicrous."

"THE MIRACLE MAN" TAKES FIRST RANK AMONG THE GREATEST FILM MASTERPIECES OF PRESENT DAY

Published originally as a novel in Munsey's Magazine, written by Frank L. Packard and later dramatized by George M. Cohan and presented with phenomenal success on Broadway, George Loane Tucker's production, "The Miracle Man," comes to the Globe next week.

As a Paramount Arcraft picture this absorbing story has been hailed by the critics as one of the finest productions ever seen on the screen. With scenes laid in the haunts of criminals in New York's Chinatown, in a little village on the side of a giant mountain and on the shore of a roaring ocean, the opportunity for wonderful photographic effects has been reapplied to the limit.

But the chief interest is in the strike-story, which centers about the venerable figure of an old patriarch, who is credited with the power to heal the sick and make crippled limbs whole again. To him come Tom Burke and his band of crooks from New York's Chinatown with the idea of cashing in on his powers. But it doesn't work out as they calculated, for hidden away in each of them is a leaven of good, which slowly comes to the surface under the influence of their wholesome environment. In a most marvelous way the criminals are reclaimed from the paths of crime.

A cast of unusual ability enacts the important roles in the picture, headed by Thomas Meighan, a well known leading man, and including Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Joseph J. Dowling, Lon Chaney, W. Lawson Butt, J. M. Dumont, Lucille Hutton, and F. A. Turner.

NEW RAY PICTURE STUDY IN COURAGE

A wonderful study in courage is afforded in "The Sheriff's Son" the new Paramount picture in which Charles Ray is starred, and which is coming to the Globe Monday.

The hero is a young man who has inherited a great fear from his mother, who witnessed an attack on his father before the boy's birth. He grows up with this sense of fear hanging over him, but the story is constructive throughout and shows how he battles splendidly to overcome his weakness and how he succeeds, winning the girl he loves in the bargain.

DARK EYED GIRLS IN COMING FILM

Each of the new Griffith players in "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," the latest Arcraft production by the great producer, is dark-eyed. It is the first time Mr. Griffith has presented a dark-eyed girl in a leading role, and this time he gives us two. Both are slender, and dancers of exceptional ability, and both are seen in "The Girl Who Stayed at Home" at the Globe theatre next week.

OLIVE THOMAS HERE IN UNIQUE PICTURE "LOVE'S PRISONER"

Can love capture the skillful thief who eludes the most adroit detective? In "Love's Prisoner", which comes to the Globe tomorrow, Olive Thomas is shown as Nancy, "the best pickpocket in the city." Born of a lady mother and a burglar father, she is a peculiar combination of good and evil—a sort of female Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The role is admirably suited to Olive Thomas, and in the interpretation of it she does some of the best work of her career.

H. S. STUDENTS WORK FOR GYM

The students of the Lebanon High school have appointed a committee consisting of Cletus D. Gallagher chairman, Anna M. Wilson secretary, Louis O'Brien, Ralph Cruson and Mable Rae Green who are working for an appropriation sufficient to begin work on a suitable gymnasium for the Lebanon schools. The business men, the students and committee as well as the teachers in the high school realize that without adequate facilities for physical education the recent splendid legislation by the state of Oregon making physical training in the schools compulsory is largely a dead letter. With proper gymnasium facilities many of the physical defects in our young men which come to light during examination for the army can be corrected. The students will work to have their project and plans submitted to the voters of School District No. 16 at the June election.

CLASSIC RACES HAVE REVIVAL

NEW YORK, March 26.—By A. P.—After a lapse of six years the classic collegiate rowing test between the Oxford and Cambridge university eights will be revived today in England. This annual rowing event which was first decided in 1841 was won 39 times by the Oxford oarsmen. The Cambridge crew finished in front in thirty-one races and once, on March 24, 1877, the result was a dead heat. On one other occasion neither crew scored a victory. This was on March 20, 1912 when both boats were swamped in the rough water and the race was declared void.

The last time these rival college crews met was in March 1914, when Cambridge proved the victor. Then the world war interrupted all sporting events of any prominence in Great Britain so that this year it was decided to revive this event in which the British sporting public takes a very keen interest, many big wagers being lost and won on the results.
