FISH AND GAME DISPUTE ENDED

MEDFORD, March 28.—Southern Oregon is jubilant over the settlement of the Rogue river fishing controversy. Peace was declared on Friday with a signed and witnessed contract between Roderick L. Macleay, head of commercial salmon packing interests at the mouth of Rogue river, and the Rogue River Fish and Game Protective association, of Medford, the Ashland Fish and Game Protective association and other organizations. Individuals who were influential in aiding to bring about the settlement of the long controversy were State Senator C. M. Thomas of Medford, H. B. Van Duzer, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and Richard W. Price, who has just retired as president of the Multnomah Anglers club. The agreement settles a controversy which has waged since 1887. A copy of the contract with a first complete statement of its terms was received in Portland Saturday afternoon.

HAMILTONS' HAMILTONS' HAMILTONS'

"Let all the jubilant sounds of the earth swing up in one resonant wave of triumphant song. . . Let us robe ourselves in the sunny gladness of bright hopes."
 —Rev. Haldemann.

Now comes Easter! And with it the joy of selecting new things to wear. Our old friends will know where to come. They have learned that the knack of dressing well lies merely in knowing where to buy.

Women who seek style do not choose at random. They know that apparel that is fashionable, in good taste and fairly priced is not to found everywhere.

Some few stores have chosen to concentrate upon these important essentials. . . We are one of them.

If you have never traded here, kindly accept this as a cordial invitation to call. We will be glad of the opportunity to show you just what we have accomplished in preparation for the coming season.

What Beautiful Sweet Peas!

THE beauty of your sweet peas depends largely upon the seed you sow. Vigorous, sturdy vines with luxuriant, fragrant blossoms grow from seed of proven vitality. Outdoor seeding must be done as soon as the soil is in condition. A plan advocated by many successful gardeners is to sow the seed early indoors and transplant when the weather permits.

Start your sweet peas right by sowing Northrup, King & Co.'s tested seeds. These seeds are especially bred for hardiness, beautiful colorings, large and abundant blossoms. They represent years of gardening experience.

You can get Northrup, King & Co.'s Sweet Peas and other Flower Seeds for 5c a packet from the convenient seed case now at dealers near you. Then just follow the cultural directions on every packet.
