

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK IS POPULAR

Uncle Sam's Bank Has Deposits Which in the Aggregate Amount to $5,863.

OVER HUNDRED ACCOUNTS HAVE NOW BEEN OPENED

Mill City and Jefferson Use the Local Post Office As a Depository for Funds.

That the postal savings bank established in Albany during the month of July 1911 is transacting a larger volume of business than similar institutions in other cities in this section of the state, and that the business has been steadily increasing, is indicated by the figures compiled by the Democrat representative this morning.

In July 1912, one year after the bank was established, the deposits reached a total of $3832.00, while at the present time the sum of $5,863.00 is on deposit with the local postal bank.

Another indication of the popularity of the institution is the large number of depositors. According to a statement made this morning by Clerk Meyers, there are at the present time 119 persons who have opened accounts with the local depository.

Both Jefferson and Mill City used the Albany postoffice as a depository and accounts from the latter place are larger than in any other town in the country outside of Albany. This is accounted for because of the larger number of men employed near that place in the lumber business and because of the further fact that no bank is operated at Mill City. The deposits from Jefferson are comparatively light. A separate account is kept for both these towns at the local office and the deposits from Mill City are not included in the figures above given.

The postal savings department of the local office is under the supervision of R. N. Torbet.

MERCHANTS THANK PEOPLE FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS

At a recent meeting of the Retail Merchants of Albany, resolutions were unanimously adopted expressing our sincere thanks to the men of our city for their liberal and cheerful contributions toward the expense of entertaining the delegates to the state convention held here on Jan. 22nd and 23rd. And we wish especially to thank the ladies who so kindly assisted at the banquet.

RETAIL MERCHANTS' ASS'N.

CREAMERY ASSN. HELD MEETING THIS MORNING

At a well attended meeting of the Albany Creamery Association held in this city at 10:30 o'clock this morning the usual routine of business was transacted and an average price of 40 cents per pound for butter fat was ordered for the month of January. This is 2 1/2 cents per pound above the regular selling price for butter for the same month. The following directors were in attendance: J. H. Scott, C. L. Shaw, J. D. Isom, J. Wheatdon and H. Freerksen.

MAN FINED THIS MORNING FOR USING TOO MUCH LIQUOR

City Recorder Assesses Fine of Ten Dollars and Costs Against Defendant.

Arrested late yesterday afternoon on the charge of inebriating too freely of intoxicating liquor, Elmer Rucker, of LaComb, was this morning arraigned before City Recorder Van Tassel and entered a plea of guilty to the charge contained in the complaint. This is the first offense of this character which has ever been lodged against a fine defendant and costs. The fine was paid this morning.

Attorney Mark V. Weatherford of this city was a passenger to Brownsville this morning where he is spending the day looking after legal matters.

W. W. Ashby, district superintendent for the Warren Construction company of this city, was a passenger to Portland this morning where he will look after business.

Chas. Ohling arrived this noon from Salem where he is a student at the Willamette University. He will return to the Capital City on Monday.

SCIO CASE WILL BE SETTLED BY COURT

Judge William Galloway Will Convene Special Term Here Early Next Week.

SUIT BROUGHT TO ENJOIN CITY FROM COLLECTING TAX

Plaintiffs Alleges Methods of Extending Limits of City Were Irregular.

To decide the case brought by T. A. Richardson and others to enjoin the city of Scio from collecting its city tax on the property annexed to the city by the extension of the limits of that city last summer and in order that the collection of taxes in this county will not be delayed, Judge William Galloway will convene a special term of court here early next week.

The work of extending the limits on the 1912 assessment roll is almost completed and County Clerk Marks expects to turn the roll over to the sheriff for collection in about a week. Owing to the fact that the clerk is enjoined from extending the Scio city tax on the property annexed to the city by a temporary injunction issued by Judge Galloway he cannot turn over the roll for collection until this question is settled. To prevent any delay in the collection, Judge Galloway will come up and try the case early next week.

It is alleged by the plaintiffs in the case that the proceedings by which the city limits were extended were irregular, illegal, and that a city tax cannot be levied and collected legally on the property sought to be taken within the city by these proceedings. It is claimed that the election at which the city limits were extended was not held in accordance with the law in that the residents in the territory sought to be annexed were not given opportunity to vote on the question separately and that their votes were not counted separately from those of the residents residing within the old limits of the city.

It is expected that the question will be definitely determined by the middle of next week so that the tax roll will be turned over to the sheriff and that the tax collection will go forward without delay.

SOCIETY.

Miss Rhoda Stalnaker, Bell Phone 553-J, Society Editor.

During the Lenten season we expect that there will be few elaborate functions to record, but as yet we notice no scarcity of society news. There seems to be always enough happening in Albany to fill our column. Every afternoon and evening, it is safe to say there is a club meeting, or meeting of some social organization. But it is almost impossible to keep track of them all. If the secretaries of these organizations will see that reports are sent to the society editor, or phoned to 553-J, we shall be glad to print them.

The Actme Bridge Club met on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. William F. Pfeiffer. Members present were Mesdames F. H. Pfeiffer, Rudd, Leatherman, Anderson, Bowersox, Haight, Wentworth, Stark, Fish, Bain, Barggraf, Train, Tweedale, Hewitt, Weatherford. Amplestined guests were Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mrs. L. L. Swan, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins.

Miss Elsie Bain and Mr. Neal Bain entertained last Tuesday evening with a "housewarming" at their new home at Eighth and Elm streets. Appropos to Valentine season, red carnations and hearts were used for decorating Valentine games amused the guests. Those present were Misses May and Claire Tillman, Stella Dorgan, Winnie Austin, Mable Schultz, Lila Batton, Laura and Gertrude Taylor, Christine Pipe, Marion Anderson, Zona Haight, Julia Crowell and Helen Hulbert; Messrs. Martin Hawkins, Walter Grant, Fred Dolan, Clarence Teal, Gordon Barrett, Edwin Fortinler, Park Stalnaker, Clyde Roberts, Buford Payne, Henry Volstedt, and Gus Abraham. In an art contest, Miss Patton and Mr. Barrett won prizes.

The Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Nelson. There was an interesting program, the principal feature of which was a resume of Mexico presented by Mrs. Mark Weatherford. Miss Henrietta Davis gave a recitation entitled "I'm a little missionary." Then Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Holbrook and Mrs. Watson sang a trio from Elijah, "Lift Thine Eyes." After these and the other numbers on the program were rendered, a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed by those present.

The Industrial Society of the United Presbyterian Church met for an afternoon of work on Wednesday.

The Royal Neighbors held a pleasant meeting at their hall on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Frank Reed of Portland is in the city visiting Mrs. H. R. Schultz.

E. D. HENRY FAILS TO APPEAR IN COURT

The Harrisburg Bootlegger Who Was Convicted by Jury This Week Forfeits Bail.

DONATES $500 MORE TO COUNTY TODAY; TOTAL $1250

Was Found Guilty of Selling Some Booze and Conducting Nuisance at Harrisburg.

Rather than face the music and receive his sentence from Judge Kelly this morning, E. D. Henry of Harrisburg, who was this week found guilty of selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the local option law and of conducting a nuisance in that city, has evidently left for parts unknown, for he failed to appear in court this morning.

Attorney Whitney who has defended Henry this week asked for an extension of time until 1 o'clock this afternoon in order to see if the defendant could be located. However, one o'clock arrived and Henry could not be found and his bond of $500 was forfeited.

Henry had substituted this $500 cash bail but substituted this last December for the bond which was signed by William Engles and George Devaney.

With the forfeiture of the $500 bond this afternoon the sum of $1250 has been contributed to the treasury of Linn county in this manner by Henry. Linn county is arrested in Harrisburg on one occasion for violating the local option law and when arraigned in the justice court in that city was fined under bonds of $250. He forfeited this bond.

Later he returned to Harrisburg and was indicted by the grand jury for selling liquor and his bonds fixed at $500. Again he left the city of Harrisburg and Linn county and his bonds were forfeited once more. Today he again forfeited $500, making a total of $1250 which he alone has contributed to the county.

Henry apparently believed that it was cheaper for him to forfeit $500 than to remain here and probably receive a fine of at least that much and a jail sentence besides, in addition to what he would receive on the other charge of which he was found guilty—that of conducting a nuisance in Harrisburg. On the latter charge he could have been fined from $50 to $250 or it was possible to give him a jail sentence of six months and no fine.

These were the last liquor cases on the docket of the present adjourned term of Judge Kelly's court. District Attorney Hill and Deputy Johnston made a remarkable record this week, securing convictions in each one of the liquor cases.

According to the report made by F. M. Redfield who has just completed experting the books of Ex-Sheriff D. S. Smith, they were found correct to a penny and the county owes Smith $3.30. For the period from July 1906 to Jan. 6, 1913, Sheriff Smith handled the sum of $2,075,826.52.

J. K. Haight will leave tonight for San Antonio, Texas, where he will be located for several months selling buggies and automobiles in which line he has been engaged for several years.

PIANO SELLING

The Colonial Design Style (1) Made in Three Veneers, Oak—Mahogany—Walnut.

WITHOUT SALESMEN

It is a well known fact that the most expensive part of piano selling is the salesman. As three to four pianos per month is considered good work for the average salesman drawing a salary from $150 to $200, it is apparent that for this item alone the purchaser has to pay $50 more for his instrument. You can readily ascertain this by the difference in prices if you go to the Woodworth Drug Co., who, for instance, during the month of December sold nine (9) pianos without the assistance of a single salesman. But the saving is not the only difference between this and houses that employ an army of salesmen; there is no urging to buy, no asking for your name and address, no following home, no molesting of any kind by persisting salesmen. The only thing that will tempt you to buy, is "Price!" employ him!

H. Snook, the Salem contractor, returned home this afternoon, Mr. Snook reported that for the first time in ten years his contracts are cleared up.

The G. Co. basketball team of Corvallis went to Salem this afternoon to play Willamette, and the U. O. basketball team, headed by the famous Bill Haywood, while going playing Washington, Pullman and Idaho.

Mrs. J. F. Flynn and daughter and Miss Mayme Stevens went to Salem this afternoon.

Pete Handley, one of the popular employees of the St. Francis hospital, upon whom an operation for appendicitis was performed at St. Mary's hospital this week, has rallied from the operation and is now on the road to recovery which his friends will be glad to learn.
